

Hope Star

WEATHER
Arkansas—Fair and rising temperature Friday night and Saturday.

VOLUME 38—NUMBER 39

(AP)—Means Associated Press
(REA)—Means Newspaper Enterprise Ass'n

HOPE, ARKANSAS, FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 27, 1936

Star of Hope 1899; Press, 1927.
Consolidated January 18, 1929.

PRICE 5c COPY

BRAZIL GREET'S ROOSEVELT

Here and There

Editorial By ALEX. H. WASHBURN

HOPE, with its new-born enthusiasm for football, would do well to take a lesson in courage and loyalty from Hot Springs. Everybody loves a winner, and it isn't hard to get a crowd when life is just one victory after another. But those of us who were out there in the Hope stadium Thanksgiving day (and who wasn't!) saw a fine Hot Springs band and a big crowd of rooters back up their team at an out-of-town engagement when every Spa rooter knew the Trojans hadn't won a game in the last five starts.

F.D.'s Son-in-Law Joins Hearst, Foe of the President

Boettiger New Publisher of Suspended Seattle Paper, the P-I.

TO GET FREE HAND

Strike Lifted Under New Publisher—Paper to Resume November 30

NEW YORK.—(AP)—Appointment of John Boettiger, President Roosevelt's son-in-law as publisher of the Seattle Post-Intelligencer, was announced Thursday by William Randolph Hearst, whose newspapers waged a strenuous campaign against the president's reelection.

The announcement followed settlement of a strike called by the American Newspaper Guild and supported by the Seattle Labor Council which forced suspension of the paper since August 13. It was the only morning newspaper in Seattle.

Hearst's Announcement
Announcing Boettiger's appointment Hearst said:

"Mr. Boettiger will have absolute freedom in directing the editorial and business policies of the Post-Intelligencer. His only direction is to make it the best newspaper in Seattle."

"He brings to his task a long experience as an active newspaper man, and is thus well fitted to carry out this important assignment."

It was said that Boettiger's wife, the former Anna Eleanor Roosevelt, would become women's editor of the Post-Intelligencer.

Boettiger, who announced his resignation Thursday as assistant to Will H. Hays, head of the Motion Picture Producers and Distributors of America, is expected to leave soon with his wife for Seattle.

To Resume Publication

The Seattle P-I is it is commonly called, is scheduled to resume publication November 30. The strike settlement was hailed as "a victory for the guild" by Richard Seller, president of the Guild's Seattle chapter.

Jonathan Edley, international secretary of the guild, said the agreement provides for newsmen workers a minimum wage scale, a 40-hour week and prohibits discrimination against guild members.

The Boettigers, if both work on the P-I, will make three of the president's family now in the employ of Hearst. Elliott Roosevelt, the president's second son, is vice president in charge of the Southwestern division of Hearst Radio, Inc., and formerly was aviation editor of Hearst newspapers.

Rail Wreck Kills Two Near Buckner

Cotton Belt Freight Crashes Into Another One on Siding

BUCKNER, Ark.—(AP)—An engineer and a fireman were killed Wednesday night when a fast St. Louis-Southwestern (Cotton Belt) freight train crashed into another freight train on a siding here.

Railroad officials at Pine Bluff identified the dead as Fireman Howard Clay and an engineer named Ammonds, both of Pine Bluff.

Two others, Engineer F. D. Vaughan and Fireman W. E. Doty, both of Pine Bluff, were in a Stamps hospital with injuries, the seriousness of which had not been determined late tonight.

Rescue crews at the scene expressed belief that two additional trainmen were beneath the wreckage.

J. B. Smith, Buckner resident, told the Associated Press that two engines and several cars were demolished and that "it is feared that the missing trainmen and others are under the wreckage."

Both trains were southbound, a slow

(Continued on page six)

A THOUGHT
He that shall broach any doctrine that cometh not from God whatsoever he say for it, or what gloss soever he set upon it, is a traitor to God, though he were an angel from Heaven.
—Bristol.

Hope Ends Best Season, Beating 'Spa'

Bobcats Roll Over Heavier Trojans by Score 34 to 7

Record-Breaking Home Crowd of 4,000 Views Smashing Victory

4TH PERIOD RALLY

Bobcats, Held 8-7, Run Over 4 Touchdowns in Last Quarter

By LEONARD ELLIS
The Hope High School football team struck savagely in the final period to run over four touchdowns and put a heavier Hot Springs team to rout, 34 to 7, before approximately 4,000 fans here Thursday afternoon.

It was Hope's ninth victory of the season, bringing to an end the most successful campaign in the history of the local school.

Led by grinning Vasco Bright, the Bobcats put on their spectacular finish with running and aerial plays that were unstoppable by the heavier Trojan team.

Statistics gave the Bobcats 14 first downs to 6 for the Hot Springs team. Scoring touchdowns for Hope were Bright two, Reese, Spears and Dean Parsons.

The Trojans' lone touchdown came in the second period after Hope had taken an 8-to-0 lead. With the ball in Hope's possession deep in its own territory, McDaniel, Bobcat fullback, let the ball get away from him. Williams, Trojan fullback, scooped it up and ran 15 yards for a touchdown. He kicked goal.

The first quarter was scoreless. Both teams punted frequently. The Trojans advanced to Hope's 25, but were held for downs.

2 Points for Hope
Near the middle of the second period the Bobcat line, charging hard, broke through to block a Trojan punt. The ball bounded backwards into the Hot Springs zone where a Hope player fell on it for a safety, giving the Bobcats two points.

The ball was brought out on the 20 and Hot Springs punted, the ball, carried by a high wind, sailed down to Hope's 10 where Bright picked it up, finally being brought down on the Hot Springs 15-yard line. It was a spectacular run that saw several of Bright's team mates clear the way by mowing down tacklers.

McDaniel hanged at the line for a short gain and then on a double reverse play Bright swept his right end, went a cross for touchdown without a hand being laid on him, giving the Bobcats an eight-point lead.

Hope's opportunity to cheer was short-lived, however. The Trojans received, quick-kicked and the ball went flying deep into Hope's territory, rolling out on the 5-yard line. Spears and Bright made a first down on line plays and then McDaniel fumbled. Williams of Hot Springs picked it up and running for touchdown. He kicked goal for extra point.

8 to 7 at Half
The balance of the quarter was mostly a punting duel, neither team threatening seriously. Holly, playing his best defensive game of the season, intercepted a pass on Hot Springs 25-yard line as the half ended.

Although the third quarter was scoreless the Bobcat offense began clicking like a well-oiled machine, setting the stage for the brilliant finish. Spears, quarterbacking in his last game for the Bobcats, began mixing them up. Taking the ball on their own 25, the Bobcats started a march with Spears, W. Parsons and Bright crashing the heavy Trojan line for consistent gains. Spears then went back and heaved a pass to Ramsey to put the ball on Hot Springs' 30 as the quarter ended.

Bright and W. Parsons drove for another 10 yards and first down. Spears flipped a pass to Ramsey, putting the ball on the five-yard line. Spears, Bright and W. Parsons hanged at the line three times but found no holes.

Fourth-Quarter Drive
On fourth down Spears fired a short pass to Reese who gathered it in behind the goal line. Attempt for extra point failed.

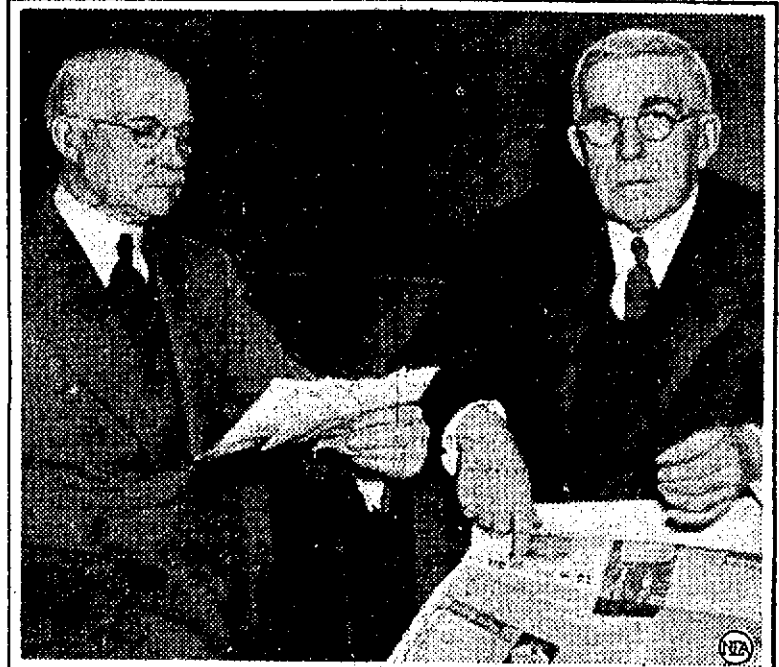

Hot Springs received. Keith, playing heads up football recovered a fumble on the second play, giving the Bobcats possession on the Trojan 35. Line plays netted a first down and then Spears shot a pass to Reese, who was brought down on the three-yard line.

On the next play Spears called for a line buck over Dean Parsons and Stone. They made a wide hole and Spears shot through and across the goal line with yards to spare. Again try for extra point failed.

The Trojans received, failed to gain and punted. Bright punted back, the ball rolling over the Trojan goal line. It was brought out on the 20 where

(Continued on page three)

Take Over Rail Empire Direction

Faced with the tremendous task of operating a 23,000-mile "railroad empire," left in their hands with the death of O. P. Van Sweringen, George A. Ball of Muncie, Ind., left, and George A. Tomlinson of Cleveland are shown in Cleveland, conferring on their problems. Ball, manufacturer and philanthropist, and Tomlinson, head of a fleet of Great Lakes ships, gave the financial aid that enabled Van Sweringen to retain control of his rail lines when monetary setbacks threatened loss of the properties.

Blevins Wallops Bobcats' B-Team

Queen Ceremony Features Centennial Event in North Hempstead

The Blevins High School football team closed a successful season Thursday morning with a 26-to-0 victory over the Hope High School B-team.

The two teams previously fought two tie battles, 6-6 and 12-12. The game was played at Blevins before the largest crowd of the season for that town.

Mrs. Lee Tedford was crowned queen at the game, concluding a centennial program. Her maids were Miss Imogene Nolen and Miss Wanda Scott.

The Blevins team, using a hard running attack, scored in every quarter and made nearly four times as many first downs as did the Hope squad.

The best the Bobkittens could do was to get to the 18-yard line where a fumble cost them a scoring opportunity.

Here is the season record of the Blevins team, coached by Charles Teeter:

Amity 0; Blevins 0.
Bourdon 0; Blevins 0.
Murfreesboro 0; Blevins 0.
Hope 6; Blevins 0.
Hope 12; Blevins 12.
Sparkman 25; Blevins 13.
Murfreesboro 0; Blevins 13.
Magnolia 7; Blevins 12.
Hope 0; Blevins 26.

Lindy Case Isn't Solved—Hoffman

Jersey Governor Insists Bruno Should Have Been Kept Alive

NEW YORK.—(AP)—Governor Hoffman of New Jersey, eight months after the electrocution of Bruno Richard Hoffman for the killing of the kidnaped Lindbergh baby, said Friday:

"I still wish there had been some way to keep Hauptmann alive. By no means am I convinced that the Lindbergh crime has been completely solved."

Turned Brown By Brown Turner

NASHVILLE, Tenn.—From the way Germany, England, France, Italy and Russia are sending ships to Spanish waters they'll have the water so muddy there won't be any places around there fit to fish in by next spring, and what places there are will be filled with nothing but mud and grime.

Germany's already been accused of knocking the pants off one Spanish loyalist ship, so you never can tell when the Spaniards will get mad about it. Touchy sort of people to start with.

There are two or three patented cotton pickers on the market now and being tried out here and there, so the first thing you know that contraption put together by the Rust brothers will be as out of date as a buggy whip.

30-Hour Week Is A. F. of L. Demand

Labor Convention Authorizes Council to Press the Congress

TAMPA, Fla.—(AP)—The American Federation of Labor threw its strength back of the 30-hour week Friday "as the only means of mastering unemployment."

Declaring the six-hour day and five-day week would protect society from future depressions, the convention directed the A. F. of L. executive council to call upon congress for enactment of the 30-hour week into national law.

1936 Cotton Staple Longer Than '35's

80 Per Cent of Estimated Crop Is Ginned, Bureau Announces

WASHINGTON.—(AP)—This season's cotton crop was reported longer in staple on the average than the 1935 crop by the Bureau of Agricultural Economics Friday.

Ginnings amounted to 9,881,527 bales, or about 80 per cent of the estimated crop.

L. & A. Crash Officially Termed Act of Vandals

WASHINGTON.—(AP)—A switch opened with malicious intent, the Interstate Commerce Commission said Friday, caused the wreck fatal for two persons on the Louisiana and Arkansas Railway at Monroe, La., last September.

What You Should Know About—NEW SOCIAL SECURITY LAW

6. How Confidential Is the Information Returned by Employee and Employer?

WHEN Mr. Worker fills out the application for a Social Security account which his employer will hand him—one step in the program to set up initial wage records of those employees for whom Federal Old-Age Benefits begin to accrue Jan. 1, 1937, under the Social Security Act—he can rest assured that the information he gives will be treated in a confidential manner by the Social Security Board.

The same assurance is made to employers, who on November 15 were given blanks entitled "Employer's Application for Identification Number."

The employee has the opportunity of using five means of returning his application, and can choose any one of a number which will insure privacy in regard to the information given.

He can put his application in a sealed envelope addressed to his local postmaster and mail it.

He can deliver it to the postoffice himself.

He can give it to the labor organization with which he is affiliated.

He can hand it to his employer.

He can hand it to a letter carrier.

In none of these instances is he required to pay postage.

As a matter of fact, the information given on the application is probably less detailed than the information which the employer already has in his personnel files.

Only a few simple questions are asked, such as name and address; date and place of birth, and father's and mother's full names.

NEXT: Wage earned cautioned against losing card. What assurance has John Smith that his account is not going to be claimed by another John Smith.

Red Cross Total for Hempstead Is Near $400 Mark

Annual Roll Call Campaign Hits $395 Here Friday

RURAL-CITY REPORT
Belton and McCaskill Contributions Help Swell County Total

A combined report Friday by Foy H. Hammons and Wayne H. England brought the Red Cross fund up to a total of $395.72.

Mr. England submitted reports from Miss Ruby Leslie, township chairman at Belton, and one from Lyl L. Bruce, chairman at McCaskill.

Previously reported

R. T. Wilson	$329.00
John M. Guthrie	1.00
Emmett Whitten	1.00
Charles R. Crutchfield	1.00
Grady Beard	1.00
Rosa Spillers	1.00
Employees, Hope Basket Co.	10.52
Hope Basket Co.	10.00
R. M. Briant	1.00
J. A. Ramsey	1.00
Clyde Zinn	1.00
John L. Custer	1.00
E. N. Glover	1.00
Emma S. Cooper	1.00
J. A. Harris	1.00
Lucine Harris	1.00
Annie Currie	1.00
Mary Lillian Jones	1.00
I. A. Hamilton	1.00
Mary Ella Tellington	1.00
Edna E. Sauer	1.00
Theodore E. Edwards	1.00
Mose Yorgner	1.00
J. A. Peters	1.00
E. F. Leslie	1.00
S. S. F. Leslie	1.00
J. W. Seldons	1.00
Sam. Leslie	1.00
James Leslie	1.00
Rubie Leslie	1.00
Contributions	3.00
Chester McCaskill	1.00
Mrs. Chester McCaskill	1.00
Glen Eley	1.00
Mrs. M. Scott	1.00
Mrs. Floy Wortham	1.00
Mrs. Stett Eley	1.00
Mrs. Argie Henry	1.00
Odis Harris	1.00
Bert Scott	1.00
Mrs. Bert Scott	1.00
Mrs. Violet Gaines	1.00
Brice Beene	1.00
C. E. Hamilton	1.00
Lyl L. Bruce	1.00
McCaskill Junior High School	1.20
Total	$395.72

Futrell Unwilling to Call a Session

Won't Act on Unemployment Matter Unless Bailey Agrees to It

LITTLE ROCK.—(AP)—Governor Futrell said Friday he was not justified in calling a special session of the legislature to consider an unemployment compensation bill without more assurance of a successful session.

Futrell reiterated he would call the session if Governor-Elect Bailey thinks one should be called.

Convicted

For "causing persons to be held as slaves," Paul D. Peachier, above, former deputy sheriff of Earle, Ark., was convicted in U. S. court at Jonesboro, Ark. A grand jury, invoking the Federal Anti-Slavery Statute of 1856, charged Peachier with falsely arresting eight negroes and having them clear land for him after they had been "illegally" sentenced for vagrancy. It was the second time since the Civil War that the statute had been invoked.

Land in Brazil
RIO DE JANEIRO, Brazil.—(AP)—President Roosevelt set foot in Rio de Janeiro Friday on an inter-American mission of peace.

The outstretched arms of Brazil's president, and the songs and cheers of her people greeted him.

Son Is Ill
BOSTON, Mass.—(AP)—Franklin D. Roosevelt, Jr., confined to a hospital here by a sinus infection, was reported much better Friday.

Assistant RA Head
WASHINGTON.—(AP)—Milo R. Parkins, assistant to Secretary Wallace, was named to the position of head of the Resettlement Administration (RA) today to supervise aid to drought area farmers.

Free Morgan in Dynamiting Case

Former Utility Man Acquitted of Charges Brought by Panich

FORT SMITH, Ark.—(AP)—A jury in circuit court acquitted S. R. Morgan, Little Rock, former utilities operator, of a charge of assault with intent to kill Wednesday night. The jury deliberated 15 minutes.

Morgan was accused of conspiring to place a dynamite bomb in the automobile of D. D. Panich, Little Rock lawyer, here last June.

Ten minutes after receiving the case, the jury returned for additional instructions from Judge Sam Wood. Approximately five minutes later it returned the verdict of acquittal.

Judge Wood instructed the jury it should not convict Morgan if it was found that the dynamite bomb was fixed in such a way "that it would not reasonably be expected to or calculated to kill Panich."

The jury was instructed that it must find evidence that Morgan was in Fort Smith on June 22, the day the bomb was discovered, and that he aided and abetted in some way its installation on Panich's car.

A Visit From St. Nicholas
By Clement Clarke Moore

When out on the lawn there arose such a clatter, I sprang from the bed to see what was the matter.

(Continued in Next Issue)

Girl Killed When Train Hits Car

Three Young Men Injured in Grade Accident at Heber Springs

HEBER SPRINGS, Ark.—(AP)—An automobile crashed into a Missouri & Arkansas train here Thursday night, killing Miss Jewell Wadley, 18, of Kensett, and critically injuring three young men.

Cotton

NEW ORLEANS.—(AP)—December cotton opened Friday at 11.82 and closed at 11.84.

Spot cotton closed steady and unchanged, middling 12.13

ONLY 23 MORE SHOPPING DAYS TILL CHRISTMAS

Hope Star

Published every week-day afternoon by Star Publishing Co., Inc.
C. E. PALMER, President
ALEX. H. WASHBURN, Editor and Publisher

Entered as second-class matter at the postoffice at Hope, Arkansas
Under the Act of March 3, 1879.

Subscription Rate (Always Payable in Advance): By city carrier, per week 15c; per month 55c; one year $6.50. By mail, in Hempstead, Nevada, Nevada, Miller and LaFayette counties, $5.50 per year; elsewhere $6.50.

Member of The Associated Press: The Associated Press is exclusively entitled to the use for republication of all news dispatches credited to it or otherwise credited in this paper and also the local news published herein.

National Advertising Representatives: Arkansas Dailies, Inc., Memphis, Tenn., Sterick Bldg., New York City, 369 Lexington; Chicago, Ill., 75 E. Wacker Drive; Detroit, Mich., 338 Woodward Ave.; St. Louis, Mo., Star Bldg.

Charges on Tributes, Etc.: Charges will be made for all tributes, cards of thanks, resolutions, or memorials, concerning the departed. Commercial newspapers hold to this policy in the news columns to protect their readers from a deluge of space-taking memorials. The Star disclaims responsibility for the safe-keeping or return of any unsolicited manuscripts.

The Family Doctor

Cataracts Are Removed by Simple Operations; Avoid Quick Cures!

By DR. MORRIS FISHBEIN
Editor, Journal of the American Medical Association, and of Hygiene, the Health Magazine.

A cataract is a clouding of the lens. Don't believe these charlatans! There are no drugs, no exercises or treatments which are successful in stopping the slow development of a cataract.

There are, however, operations which are successful in most cases, and which now can be performed by competent men throughout the United States.

Along the roadways in India, trained operators remove cataracts from aged Hindus. The methods used there are duplicated by surgeons in this country under much safer conditions and with the aid of modern anesthesia.

When a cataract is removed, the effect is the same as the defrosting of a window or the letting up of a shade. Light again comes into the eye, and the patient can see. The operation does not injure the front of the eye in any way, and the eye pupil is preserved.

After a cataract is removed, the patient wears what are known as cataract glasses, made so that they will help to fix the image properly on the retina.

The person who has been unable to see, play golf, or get about for some time because of a cataract, and who then recovers his sight by a simple operation which any specialist in eye diseases can perform, is usually immensely thankful for the benefits of medical science. Good vision follows 97 per cent of cataract operations.

Most cases of cataract occur in people between 50 and 60 years of age, but occasionally in young people who may have been born with cataract.

Because of the psychological factors associated with vision, it has been possible for all sorts of quacks to offer special treatments that do not involve surgical operation for cataract.

The desire to see better is so great that the person is willing to admit he sees better following any sort of medical treatment.

Your Children

By Olive Roberts Barton

Addle-Brained Children Often Too Busy to Think

"Here, Billy, see, I'll put this little paper with fifty cents in it, in your pocket. Now be sure to give it to the teacher right away for your savings."

"My what?"

"Your savings. That means that all the little boys and girls who want to, can take Miss Miller a nickel or dime or more every Wednesday, and she will keep it until you have a whole lot of money. Then sometime you can get something very very much."

"A two-wheeler?"

"Why, maybe. But you are only five so we'll see about that. Now run off to kindergarten. Be sure to remember. And drink your milk and take your nap."

What Money at Age 5?

Not exactly kindergarten, but a preschool for tots it was, and Billy added it.

At supper his mother asked, "Did you give Miss Miller your half dollar?"

"What half dollar?"

"Oh, I just knew you'd forget. Go and get it right away and give it to me. It's in your coat."

"What in the world did you do with it?"

"I don't know. I want some more mashed potatoes."

"Call her up," said Daddy.

"Oh, he forgot it last week and there's been much fuss now, I hate to. I'll go tomorrow and find out about it. She is very busy."

"I made the best basket today," said Billy with his mouth full. "Miss Miller said it was. I worked fast, too."

"Billy, think. Where did you put that money?"

"You mean those quarters?"

"Certainly."

"Can I get a two-wheeler?"

"Never, at this rate."

"I had to drum while the teacher played. She said I was good. I kept time. She had to show Paul and Tommy and they couldn't do it right. I tried."

"Listen, Billy, pay attention. Think hard. Did you take out the little paper with the money and hand it to Miss Miller?"

"I forgot. Say, Mom, Miss Miller drew a big pumpkin-face. And a turkey. Can we have turkey? She said I was a good boy."

"What for?"

"Because I didn't lose my money."

"Then you did give it to her?"

"Umh, umh, yes. What did you think I did with it?"

"Well, I am sure I don't know what to think. Sam, this child will never learn to concentrate. Isn't it terrible?"

"Miss Miller said I did three things best today. I tied my shoes fastest, and I drummed just dandy and made a good basket. Can I go out and see Paul?"

"Goodness, yes. I have to think. What's the matter, Sam? Is he crazy?"

"Just a boy, said Sam. 'And very, very busy. He concentrates so hard on some things, he forgets the rest. He'll do,' he added with pride."

Supervising everything is Mr. Joseph O'Connell, studio production manager. Someday yells, "Hit 'em all!" and the lights go on. The whistle blows and things begin to happen. Raw cornflakes are tossed in front of wind machines so that they will swirl about the set represents a waterfront street in New York in 1880. On a big canvas backdrop, depicting the illusion, are painted the masts and rigging of ships. Farnell is leaving for Europe. Country-triumphant American visit. Country-men, led by the Friendly Sons of St.

Paul and Hackdrivers' Benevolent Union, are cheering him to his ship through a cheering crowd of Celts.

Director Stahl and his cameraman ride high above the street on the end of a camera boom. A Mr. Al O'Shinn, an assistant director, is striding up and down the street telling the extras exactly what is expected of them.

He is saying: "We blow the whistle and the parade starts. I want you all should run along with the carriage of Miss Gable, cheering like he is a hero."

Supervising everything is Mr. Joseph O'Connell, studio production manager. Someday yells, "Hit 'em all!" and the lights go on. The whistle blows and things begin to happen. Raw cornflakes are tossed in front of wind machines so that they will swirl about the set represents a waterfront street in New York in 1880. On a big canvas backdrop, depicting the illusion, are painted the masts and rigging of ships. Farnell is leaving for Europe. Country-triumphant American visit. Country-men, led by the Friendly Sons of St.

Paul and Hackdrivers' Benevolent Union, are cheering him to his ship through a cheering crowd of Celts.

Director Stahl and his cameraman ride high above the street on the end of a camera boom. A Mr. Al O'Shinn, an assistant director, is striding up and down the street telling the extras exactly what is expected of them.

He is saying: "We blow the whistle and the parade starts. I want you all should run along with the carriage of Miss Gable, cheering like he is a hero."

Supervising everything is Mr. Joseph O'Connell, studio production manager. Someday yells, "Hit 'em all!" and the lights go on. The whistle blows and things begin to happen. Raw cornflakes are tossed in front of wind machines so that they will swirl about the set represents a waterfront street in New York in 1880. On a big canvas backdrop, depicting the illusion, are painted the masts and rigging of ships. Farnell is leaving for Europe. Country-triumphant American visit. Country-men, led by the Friendly Sons of St.

Paul and Hackdrivers' Benevolent Union, are cheering him to his ship through a cheering crowd of Celts.

Director Stahl and his cameraman ride high above the street on the end of a camera boom. A Mr. Al O'Shinn, an assistant director, is striding up and down the street telling the extras exactly what is expected of them.

He is saying: "We blow the whistle and the parade starts. I want you all should run along with the carriage of Miss Gable, cheering like he is a hero."

Supervising everything is Mr. Joseph O'Connell, studio production manager. Someday yells, "Hit 'em all!" and the lights go on. The whistle blows and things begin to happen. Raw cornflakes are tossed in front of wind machines so that they will swirl about the set represents a waterfront street in New York in 1880. On a big canvas backdrop, depicting the illusion, are painted the masts and rigging of ships. Farnell is leaving for Europe. Country-triumphant American visit. Country-men, led by the Friendly Sons of St.

Paul and Hackdrivers' Benevolent Union, are cheering him to his ship through a cheering crowd of Celts.

Director Stahl and his cameraman ride high above the street on the end of a camera boom. A Mr. Al O'Shinn, an assistant director, is striding up and down the street telling the extras exactly what is expected of them.

He is saying: "We blow the whistle and the parade starts. I want you all should run along with the carriage of Miss Gable, cheering like he is a hero."

Supervising everything is Mr. Joseph O'Connell, studio production manager. Someday yells, "Hit 'em all!" and the lights go on. The whistle blows and things begin to happen. Raw cornflakes are tossed in front of wind machines so that they will swirl about the set represents a waterfront street in New York in 1880. On a big canvas backdrop, depicting the illusion, are painted the masts and rigging of ships. Farnell is leaving for Europe. Country-triumphant American visit. Country-men, led by the Friendly Sons of St.

Paul and Hackdrivers' Benevolent Union, are cheering him to his ship through a cheering crowd of Celts.

Director Stahl and his cameraman ride high above the street on the end of a camera boom. A Mr. Al O'Shinn, an assistant director, is striding up and down the street telling the extras exactly what is expected of them.

He is saying: "We blow the whistle and the parade starts. I want you all should run along with the carriage of Miss Gable, cheering like he is a hero."

Supervising everything is Mr. Joseph O'Connell, studio production manager. Someday yells, "Hit 'em all!" and the lights go on. The whistle blows and things begin to happen. Raw cornflakes are tossed in front of wind machines so that they will swirl about the set represents a waterfront street in New York in 1880. On a big canvas backdrop, depicting the illusion, are painted the masts and rigging of ships. Farnell is leaving for Europe. Country-triumphant American visit. Country-men, led by the Friendly Sons of St.

Paul and Hackdrivers' Benevolent Union, are cheering him to his ship through a cheering crowd of Celts.

Director Stahl and his cameraman ride high above the street on the end of a camera boom. A Mr. Al O'Shinn, an assistant director, is striding up and down the street telling the extras exactly what is expected of them.

He is saying: "We blow the whistle and the parade starts. I want you all should run along with the carriage of Miss Gable, cheering like he is a hero."

Supervising everything is Mr. Joseph O'Connell, studio production manager. Someday yells, "Hit 'em all!" and the lights go on. The whistle blows and things begin to happen. Raw cornflakes are tossed in front of wind machines so that they will swirl about the set represents a waterfront street in New York in 1880. On a big canvas backdrop, depicting the illusion, are painted the masts and rigging of ships. Farnell is leaving for Europe. Country-triumphant American visit. Country-men, led by the Friendly Sons of St.

Paul and Hackdrivers' Benevolent Union, are cheering him to his ship through a cheering crowd of Celts.

Director Stahl and his cameraman ride high above the street on the end of a camera boom. A Mr. Al O'Shinn, an assistant director, is striding up and down the street telling the extras exactly what is expected of them.

He is saying: "We blow the whistle and the parade starts. I want you all should run along with the carriage of Miss Gable, cheering like he is a hero."

Supervising everything is Mr. Joseph O'Connell, studio production manager. Someday yells, "Hit 'em all!" and the lights go on. The whistle blows and things begin to happen. Raw cornflakes are tossed in front of wind machines so that they will swirl about the set represents a waterfront street in New York in 1880. On a big canvas backdrop, depicting the illusion, are painted the masts and rigging of ships. Farnell is leaving for Europe. Country-triumphant American visit. Country-men, led by the Friendly Sons of St.

Paul and Hackdrivers' Benevolent Union, are cheering him to his ship through a cheering crowd of Celts.

Director Stahl and his cameraman ride high above the street on the end of a camera boom. A Mr. Al O'Shinn, an assistant director, is striding up and down the street telling the extras exactly what is expected of them.

He is saying: "We blow the whistle and the parade starts. I want you all should run along with the carriage of Miss Gable, cheering like he is a hero."

Supervising everything is Mr. Joseph O'Connell, studio production manager. Someday yells, "Hit 'em all!" and the lights go on. The whistle blows and things begin to happen. Raw cornflakes are tossed in front of wind machines so that they will swirl about the set represents a waterfront street in New York in 1880. On a big canvas backdrop, depicting the illusion, are painted the masts and rigging of ships. Farnell is leaving for Europe. Country-triumphant American visit. Country-men, led by the Friendly Sons of St.

Paul and Hackdrivers' Benevolent Union, are cheering him to his ship through a cheering crowd of Celts.

Director Stahl and his cameraman ride high above the street on the end of a camera boom. A Mr. Al O'Shinn, an assistant director, is striding up and down the street telling the extras exactly what is expected of them.

He is saying: "We blow the whistle and the parade starts. I want you all should run along with the carriage of Miss Gable, cheering like he is a hero."

Supervising everything is Mr. Joseph O'Connell, studio production manager. Someday yells, "Hit 'em all!" and the lights go on. The whistle blows and things begin to happen. Raw cornflakes are tossed in front of wind machines so that they will swirl about the set represents a waterfront street in New York in 1880. On a big canvas backdrop, depicting the illusion, are painted the masts and rigging of ships. Farnell is leaving for Europe. Country-triumphant American visit. Country-men, led by the Friendly Sons of St.

Paul and Hackdrivers' Benevolent Union, are cheering him to his ship through a cheering crowd of Celts.

Director Stahl and his cameraman ride high above the street on the end of a camera boom. A Mr. Al O'Shinn, an assistant director, is striding up and down the street telling the extras exactly what is expected of them.

He is saying: "We blow the whistle and the parade starts. I want you all should run along with the carriage of Miss Gable, cheering like he is a hero."

Supervising everything is Mr. Joseph O'Connell, studio production manager. Someday yells, "Hit 'em all!" and the lights go on. The whistle blows and things begin to happen. Raw cornflakes are tossed in front of wind machines so that they will swirl about the set represents a waterfront street in New York in 1880. On a big canvas backdrop, depicting the illusion, are painted the masts and rigging of ships. Farnell is leaving for Europe. Country-triumphant American visit. Country-men, led by the Friendly Sons of St.

Paul and Hackdrivers' Benevolent Union, are cheering him to his ship through a cheering crowd of Celts.

Director Stahl and his cameraman ride high above the street on the end of a camera boom. A Mr. Al O'Shinn, an assistant director, is striding up and down the street telling the extras exactly what is expected of them.

He is saying: "We blow the whistle and the parade starts. I want you all should run along with the carriage of Miss Gable, cheering like he is a hero."

Supervising everything is Mr. Joseph O'Connell, studio production manager. Someday yells, "Hit 'em all!" and the lights go on. The whistle blows and things begin to happen. Raw cornflakes are tossed in front of wind machines so that they will swirl about the set represents a waterfront street in New York in 1880. On a big canvas backdrop, depicting the illusion, are painted the masts and rigging of ships. Farnell is leaving for Europe. Country-triumphant American visit. Country-men, led by the Friendly Sons of St.

Paul and Hackdrivers' Benevolent Union, are cheering him to his ship through a cheering crowd of Celts.

Director Stahl and his cameraman ride high above the street on the end of a camera boom. A Mr. Al O'Shinn, an assistant director, is striding up and down the street telling the extras exactly what is expected of them.

He is saying: "We blow the whistle and the parade starts. I want you all should run along with the carriage of Miss Gable, cheering like he is a hero."

Supervising everything is Mr. Joseph O'Connell, studio production manager. Someday yells, "Hit 'em all!" and the lights go on. The whistle blows and things begin to happen. Raw cornflakes are tossed in front of wind machines so that they will swirl about the set represents a waterfront street in New York in 1880. On a big canvas backdrop, depicting the illusion, are painted the masts and rigging of ships. Farnell is leaving for Europe. Country-triumphant American visit. Country-men, led by the Friendly Sons of St.

Paul and Hackdrivers' Benevolent Union, are cheering him to his ship through a cheering crowd of Celts.

Director Stahl and his cameraman ride high above the street on the end of a camera boom. A Mr. Al O'Shinn, an assistant director, is striding up and down the street telling the extras exactly what is expected of them.

He is saying: "We blow the whistle and the parade starts. I want you all should run along with the carriage of Miss Gable, cheering like he is a hero."

Supervising everything is Mr. Joseph O'Connell, studio production manager. Someday yells, "Hit 'em all!" and the lights go on. The whistle blows and things begin to happen. Raw cornflakes are tossed in front of wind machines so that they will swirl about the set represents a waterfront street in New York in 1880. On a big canvas backdrop, depicting the illusion, are painted the masts and rigging of ships. Farnell is leaving for Europe. Country-triumphant American visit. Country-men, led by the Friendly Sons of St.

Paul and Hackdrivers' Benevolent Union, are cheering him to his ship through a cheering crowd of Celts.

Director Stahl and his cameraman ride high above the street on the end of a camera boom. A Mr. Al O'Shinn, an assistant director, is striding up and down the street telling the extras exactly what is expected of them.

He is saying: "We blow the whistle and the parade starts. I want you all should run along with the carriage of Miss Gable, cheering like he is a hero."

Supervising everything is Mr. Joseph O'Connell, studio production manager. Someday yells, "Hit 'em all!" and the lights go on. The whistle blows and things begin to happen. Raw cornflakes are tossed in front of wind machines so that they will swirl about the set represents a waterfront street in New York in 1880. On a big canvas backdrop, depicting the illusion, are painted the masts and rigging of ships. Farnell is leaving for Europe. Country-triumphant American visit. Country-men, led by the Friendly Sons of St.

Paul and Hackdrivers' Benevolent Union, are cheering him to his ship through a cheering crowd of Celts.

Director Stahl and his cameraman ride high above the street on the end of a camera boom. A Mr. Al O'Shinn, an assistant director, is striding up and down the street telling the extras exactly what is expected of them.

He is saying: "We blow the whistle and the parade starts. I want you all should run along with the carriage of Miss Gable, cheering like he is a hero."

Supervising everything is Mr. Joseph O'Connell, studio production manager. Someday yells, "Hit 'em all!" and the lights go on. The whistle blows and things begin to happen. Raw cornflakes are tossed in front of wind machines so that they will swirl about the set represents a waterfront street in New York in 1880. On a big canvas backdrop, depicting the illusion, are painted the masts and rigging of ships. Farnell is leaving for Europe. Country-triumphant American visit. Country-men, led by the Friendly Sons of St.

Paul and Hackdrivers' Benevolent Union, are cheering him to his ship through a cheering crowd of Celts.

Director Stahl and his cameraman ride high above the street on the end of a camera boom. A Mr. Al O'Shinn, an assistant director, is striding up and down the street telling the extras exactly what is expected of them.

He is saying: "We blow the whistle and the parade starts. I want you all should run along with the carriage of Miss Gable, cheering like he is a hero."

Supervising everything is Mr. Joseph O'Connell, studio production manager. Someday yells, "Hit 'em all!" and the lights go on. The whistle blows and things begin to happen. Raw cornflakes are tossed in front of wind machines so that they will swirl about the set represents a waterfront street in New York in 1880. On a big canvas backdrop, depicting the illusion, are painted the masts and rigging of ships. Farnell is leaving for Europe. Country-triumphant American visit. Country-men, led by the Friendly Sons of St.

Paul and Hackdrivers' Benevolent Union, are cheering him to his ship through a cheering crowd of Celts.

Director Stahl and his cameraman ride high above the street on the end of a camera boom. A Mr. Al O'Shinn, an assistant director, is striding up and down the street telling the extras exactly what is expected of them.

He is saying: "We blow the whistle and the parade starts. I want you all should run along with the carriage of Miss Gable, cheering like he is a hero."

Supervising everything is Mr. Joseph O'Connell, studio production manager. Someday yells, "Hit 'em all!" and the lights go on. The whistle blows and things begin to happen. Raw cornflakes are tossed in front of wind machines so that they will swirl about the set represents a waterfront street in New York in 1880. On a big canvas backdrop, depicting the illusion, are painted the masts and rigging of ships. Farnell is leaving for Europe. Country-triumphant American visit. Country-men, led by the Friendly Sons of St.

Paul and Hackdrivers' Benevolent Union, are cheering him to his ship through a cheering crowd of Celts.

Director Stahl and his cameraman ride high above the street on the end of a camera boom. A Mr. Al O'Shinn, an assistant director, is striding up and down the street telling the extras exactly what is expected of them.

He is saying: "We blow the whistle and the parade starts. I want you all should run along with the carriage of Miss Gable, cheering like he is a hero."

Supervising everything is Mr. Joseph O'Connell, studio production manager. Someday yells, "Hit 'em all!" and the lights go on. The whistle blows and things begin to happen. Raw cornflakes are tossed in front of wind machines so that they will swirl about the set represents a waterfront street in New York in 1880. On a big canvas backdrop, depicting the illusion, are painted the masts and rigging of ships. Farnell is leaving for Europe. Country-triumphant American visit. Country-men, led by the Friendly Sons of St.

Paul and Hackdrivers' Benevolent Union, are cheering him to his ship through a cheering crowd of Celts.

Director Stahl and his cameraman ride high above the street on the end of a camera boom. A Mr. Al O'Shinn, an assistant director, is striding up and down the street telling the extras exactly what is expected of them.

He is saying: "We blow the whistle and the parade starts. I want you all should run along with the carriage of Miss Gable, cheering like he is a hero."

Supervising everything is Mr. Joseph O'Connell, studio production manager. Someday yells, "Hit 'em all!" and the lights go on. The whistle blows and things begin to happen. Raw cornflakes are tossed in front of wind machines so that they will swirl about the set represents a waterfront street in New York in 1880. On a big canvas backdrop, depicting the illusion, are painted the masts and rigging of ships. Farnell is leaving for Europe. Country-triumphant American visit. Country-men, led by the Friendly Sons of St.

Paul and Hackdrivers' Benevolent Union, are cheering him to his ship through a cheering crowd of Celts.

Director Stahl and his cameraman ride high above the street on the end of a camera boom. A Mr. Al O'Shinn, an assistant director, is striding up and down the street telling the extras exactly what is expected of them.

He is saying: "We blow the whistle and the parade starts. I want you all should run along with the carriage of Miss Gable, cheering like he is a hero."

Supervising everything is Mr. Joseph O'Connell, studio production manager. Someday yells, "Hit 'em all!" and the lights go on. The whistle blows and things begin to happen. Raw cornflakes are tossed in front of wind machines so that they will swirl about the set represents a waterfront street in New York in 1880. On a big canvas backdrop, depicting the illusion, are painted the masts and rigging of ships. Farnell is leaving for Europe. Country-triumphant American visit. Country-men, led by the Friendly Sons of St.

Paul and Hackdrivers' Benevolent Union, are cheering him to his ship through a cheering crowd of Celts.

Director Stahl and his cameraman ride high above the street on the end of a camera boom. A Mr. Al O'Shinn, an assistant director, is striding up and down the street telling the extras exactly what is expected of them.

He is saying: "We blow the whistle and the parade starts. I want you all should run along with the carriage of Miss Gable, cheering like he is a hero."

Supervising everything is Mr. Joseph O'Connell, studio production manager. Someday yells, "Hit 'em all!" and the lights go on. The whistle blows and things begin to happen. Raw cornflakes are tossed in front of wind machines so that they will swirl about the set represents a waterfront street in New York in 1880. On a big canvas backdrop, depicting the illusion, are painted the masts and rigging of ships. Farnell is leaving for Europe. Country-triumphant American visit. Country-men, led by the Friendly Sons of St.

Paul and Hackdrivers' Benevolent Union, are cheering him to his ship through a cheering crowd of Celts.

Director Stahl and his cameraman ride high above the street on the end of a camera boom. A Mr. Al O'Shinn, an assistant director, is striding up and down the street telling the extras exactly what is expected of them.

He is saying: "We blow the whistle and the parade starts. I want you all should run along with the carriage of Miss Gable, cheering like he is a hero."

Supervising everything is Mr. Joseph O'Connell, studio production manager. Someday yells, "Hit 'em all!" and the lights go on. The whistle blows and things begin to happen. Raw cornflakes are tossed in front of wind machines so that they will swirl about the set represents a waterfront street in New York in 1880. On a big canvas backdrop, depicting the illusion, are painted the masts and rigging of ships. Farnell is leaving for Europe. Country-triumphant American visit. Country-men, led by the Friendly Sons of St.

Paul and Hackdrivers' Benevolent Union, are cheering him to his ship through a cheering crowd of Celts.

Director Stahl and his cameraman ride high above the street on the end of a camera boom. A Mr. Al O'Shinn, an assistant director, is striding up and down the street telling the extras exactly what is expected of them.

He is saying: "We blow the whistle and the parade starts. I want you all should run along with the carriage of Miss Gable, cheering like he is a hero."

Supervising everything is Mr. Joseph O'Connell, studio production manager. Someday yells, "Hit 'em all!" and the lights go on. The whistle blows and things begin to happen. Raw cornflakes are tossed in front of wind machines so that they will swirl about the set represents a waterfront street in New York in 1880. On a big canvas backdrop, depicting the illusion, are painted the m

Society

Mrs. Sid Henry

Telephone 321

Clear and Crisp

Sunshiny mornings, crisp and cold. When all the world is russet gold. And trees are cased in a gleam that throws Off opalescent tints, and glows To the warm kisses of the sun And just to be out of doors is fun! And little children laugh and call, And run, and never tire at all! And there's a perfume in the wood, And all things seem so sweet and good One almost drops one's grown-up ways And runs back to life's yesterdays.

—Selected.

Miss Nancy Ruth Carrigan of Henderson State Teachers College (Arkadelphia), is spending the Thanksgiving week end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Doph Carrigan.

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Jones and little daughter, Betty, spent Thanksgiving visiting with relatives in Texarkana.

Among the Hot Springs fans seeing the football game in this city on Thanksgiving were Mr. and Mrs. Benjie Benton and children and Rev. and Mrs. V. E. Howard and small son.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Burton of Lewisville were Thursday visitors in the city to see their daughter, Miss Martha Burton of the Hope High School faculty and the ball game between the Hops and Hot Springs teams.

Mrs. J. J. Ward and Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Ward have as house guest, Mrs. W. G. Key of Pine Bluff.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Simington and son, Milton of Dierks, were among the out of town visitors seeing the Thursday game between Hope and Hot Springs.

Lamar Cox of Dallas, was the Thanksgiving guest of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John P. Cox.

Mrs. E. A. Morsani entertained the members of her Sunday school class of the Our Lady of Good Hope church, at a most delightful Thanksgiving dinner.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Perkins had as Thanksgiving guests, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Perkins, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Kelly and son, Donald, of Stamps and Mr. and Mrs. Claude Nunn and son, city.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Perkins had as Thanksgiving guests, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Perkins, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Kelly and son, Donald, of Stamps and Mr. and Mrs. Claude Nunn and son, city.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Perkins had as Thanksgiving guests, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Perkins, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Kelly and son, Donald, of Stamps and Mr. and Mrs. Claude Nunn and son, city.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Perkins had as Thanksgiving guests, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Perkins, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Kelly and son, Donald, of Stamps and Mr. and Mrs. Claude Nunn and son, city.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Perkins had as Thanksgiving guests, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Perkins, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Kelly and son, Donald, of Stamps and Mr. and Mrs. Claude Nunn and son, city.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Perkins had as Thanksgiving guests, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Perkins, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Kelly and son, Donald, of Stamps and Mr. and Mrs. Claude Nunn and son, city.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Perkins had as Thanksgiving guests, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Perkins, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Kelly and son, Donald, of Stamps and Mr. and Mrs. Claude Nunn and son, city.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Perkins had as Thanksgiving guests, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Perkins, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Kelly and son, Donald, of Stamps and Mr. and Mrs. Claude Nunn and son, city.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Perkins had as Thanksgiving guests, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Perkins, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Kelly and son, Donald, of Stamps and Mr. and Mrs. Claude Nunn and son, city.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Perkins had as Thanksgiving guests, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Perkins, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Kelly and son, Donald, of Stamps and Mr. and Mrs. Claude Nunn and son, city.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Perkins had as Thanksgiving guests, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Perkins, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Kelly and son, Donald, of Stamps and Mr. and Mrs. Claude Nunn and son, city.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Perkins had as Thanksgiving guests, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Perkins, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Kelly and son, Donald, of Stamps and Mr. and Mrs. Claude Nunn and son, city.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Perkins had as Thanksgiving guests, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Perkins, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Kelly and son, Donald, of Stamps and Mr. and Mrs. Claude Nunn and son, city.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Perkins had as Thanksgiving guests, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Perkins, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Kelly and son, Donald, of Stamps and Mr. and Mrs. Claude Nunn and son, city.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Perkins had as Thanksgiving guests, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Perkins, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Kelly and son, Donald, of Stamps and Mr. and Mrs. Claude Nunn and son, city.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Perkins had as Thanksgiving guests, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Perkins, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Kelly and son, Donald, of Stamps and Mr. and Mrs. Claude Nunn and son, city.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Perkins had as Thanksgiving guests, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Perkins, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Kelly and son, Donald, of Stamps and Mr. and Mrs. Claude Nunn and son, city.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Perkins had as Thanksgiving guests, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Perkins, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Kelly and son, Donald, of Stamps and Mr. and Mrs. Claude Nunn and son, city.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Perkins had as Thanksgiving guests, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Perkins, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Kelly and son, Donald, of Stamps and Mr. and Mrs. Claude Nunn and son, city.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Perkins had as Thanksgiving guests, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Perkins, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Kelly and son, Donald, of Stamps and Mr. and Mrs. Claude Nunn and son, city.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Perkins had as Thanksgiving guests, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Perkins, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Kelly and son, Donald, of Stamps and Mr. and Mrs. Claude Nunn and son, city.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Perkins had as Thanksgiving guests, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Perkins, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Kelly and son, Donald, of Stamps and Mr. and Mrs. Claude Nunn and son, city.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Perkins had as Thanksgiving guests, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Perkins, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Kelly and son, Donald, of Stamps and Mr. and Mrs. Claude Nunn and son, city.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Perkins had as Thanksgiving guests, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Perkins, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Kelly and son, Donald, of Stamps and Mr. and Mrs. Claude Nunn and son, city.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Perkins had as Thanksgiving guests, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Perkins, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Kelly and son, Donald, of Stamps and Mr. and Mrs. Claude Nunn and son, city.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Perkins had as Thanksgiving guests, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Perkins, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Kelly and son, Donald, of Stamps and Mr. and Mrs. Claude Nunn and son, city.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Perkins had as Thanksgiving guests, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Perkins, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Kelly and son, Donald, of Stamps and Mr. and Mrs. Claude Nunn and son, city.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Perkins had as Thanksgiving guests, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Perkins, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Kelly and son, Donald, of Stamps and Mr. and Mrs. Claude Nunn and son, city.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Perkins had as Thanksgiving guests, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Perkins, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Kelly and son, Donald, of Stamps and Mr. and Mrs. Claude Nunn and son, city.

Weekly Sunday School Lesson

By WM. E. GILROY, D. D.
Editor of Advance

CHRISTIAN BROTHERHOOD

Devotional Reading: Ephesians 3:14-21

The larger epistles of Paul were addressed to groups of Christians in the churches in various cities. In these letters were numerous references to individuals that gave the letters a personal touch, but they were addressed to the church as a whole.

Among Paul's letters that have come down to us, however, are two or three to individuals; and among these none is so choice, or of such colorful interest, as the letter to Philemon, which occupies a single one-chapter book of the New Testament.

The letter presents a dramatic situation in the problem of slavery, and offers some light on Paul's approach to such problems as that of slavery, an institution, of course, well established everywhere in the ancient world. Philemon, a citizen of Colossae, near Ephesus, was the owner of a slave called Onesimus. Philemon was a Christian convert, and if his adoption of the Christian faith and way of life was intelligent and sincere, his attitude toward his slave undoubtedly would have been affected by it.

Some might say that it was the first duty of Philemon to free his slave and that no treatment of the slave could be truly Christian until he had done so. It must be remembered, however, that there were obligations on the part of the master as well as slave. Whatever the treatment accorded Onesimus by Philemon, the slave seems to have been a rather worthless character. He ran away from his master, and probably took with him whatever he felt that he needed.

Paul speaks of Onesimus as "once unprofitable," which would indicate that he had no particular degree of the slave's conduct. But drifting to Rome in his runaway flight, Onesimus came under the influence of Paul, and under the power of the new religion, which can transform slaves as well as masters. He became a new man so profitable that Paul gladly would have kept him in Rome for his own service.

The test of conversion of Onesimus was his willingness to go back to his master for Paul evidently told him that this was the only right course. But Paul did not recommend such the institution of slavery to the extent of recognizing only the master's rights. There was an obligation of right and of brotherly love to which a slaveowner himself was subject.

So Paul gave to Onesimus this letter to Philemon, reminding him that he was receiving back, not a servant, but more than a servant, "a brother beloved."

Writing as "Paul the Aged," he uses all his skill and exhortation to persuade Philemon to see the situation rightly, and to meet it in a Christian way. Paul urges him to receive Onesimus as he himself would have been received into Philemon's home, and he assures Philemon that if Onesimus has robbed or otherwise wronged him, he himself will make good the loss.

History does not record how Philemon met the test. Was the master as noble in receiving the slave as the slave was in returning to his bondage?

If Philemon's experience of Christianity was sincere, it seems incredible that he could have been unmoved by so beautiful and so persuasive a plea as in this letter of Paul.

Murder Reunites 12 Families

SACRAMENTO, Cal., (AP)—Attempts to identify a tattooed woman found murdered near Clarksville had an unusual by-product. Various parents wrote in describing missing daughters bearing tattoo marks and the state bureau of criminal investigation located 12 and put them in touch with their families.

HALF-ACRE in EDEN

(Continued From Page Two)

CHAPTER XV
TONY STELLICCI, with a sick heart, realized that he had bungled the job which clearly had faced him when he first suspected Carlo's complicity in the Dog Wagon holdup. His immediate concern had been to recapture, as a matter of honor, the property stolen before his eyes from the restaurant customers. In his efforts to this end, and subsequently, he had acted in secret because of consideration of his father, fearing the effect of the shock upon the invalid should he learn that his son was a thief. Having regained and mailed anonymously to the police his brother's share of the things stolen at the Dog Wagon, Tony had felt himself balked; he did not know how to proceed without publicity harmful to his father.

But as the same four men who had robbed his customers had since committed other holdups in Hobbs Neck—the Henderson bridge party and the Canfield home—Tony realized the effects of his failure. Somehow he should have stopped Carlo at the outset.

On the day after Carlo's visit to New York, Tony awakened, as usual, soon after noon and, greeting his father, prepared for his breakfast, served by the landlady along with his father's lunch. The village welfare nurse was to call this afternoon on a regular visit, and after their meal Tony opened a book to read to his father until her arrival.

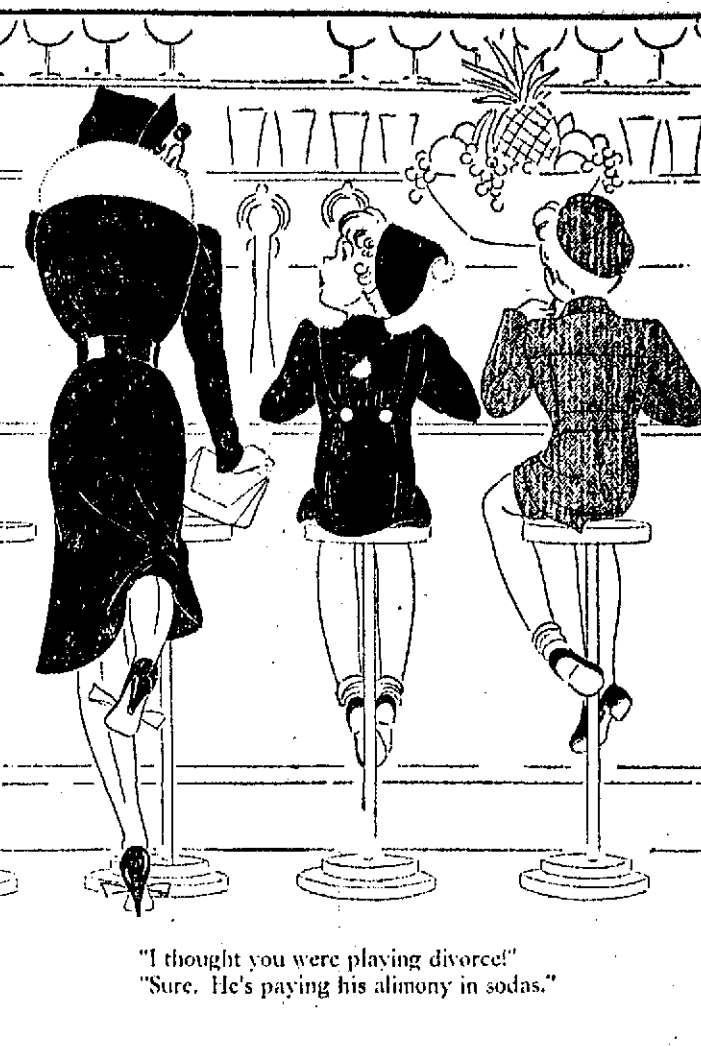

SINCE Marcia Canfield, as part of her contribution to the welfare work, frequently accompanied the nurse on her rounds, Tony was not surprised when the two arrived together this afternoon.

Nor, of course, was he surprised

FLAPPER FANNY

By Sylvia

© BY NEA SERVICE, INC. T. M. REG. U. S. PAT. OFF.

NEWS OF THE CHURCHES

FIRST CHRISTIAN CHURCH

V. A. Hammond, Pastor

Two classes "Out of the Red" last Sunday and two others nearly out. Let's all work at the job this week and get the whole school in the clear. This is the last Sunday in the month, and it would be terrible to end a month "In the Red." The school needs $8 Sunday.

The Loyal Women are the only class with a safe margin this week again. Other classes must reach the following goals Sunday to "Keep out of the Red": Everyman's 17; Service, 24; Trojans, 15; Loyal, 14; Busy Bees, 12; and Primary, 16. Every goal can be reached if . . . Sunday is State Missions Day. The Sunday school offering and the loose plate offerings during the day go to support our state work. Make a liberal offering Sunday. The offering will count toward our mission budget.

The morning sermon Sunday is on the subject "The Joy of Sacrifice." Christ often spoke of His joy, and He also spoke of the joy that the disciples might have. The Christian's joy? Can we understand it? Can we learn how He attained unto it? If we can, we may also learn how our joy may be full. A New York newspaper, giving an editorial review of a certain Sunday's sermon it was published in its Monday morning edition, said: "Our clergymen make religion so agreeable that it is really a sacrifice to remain a sinner, and we are compelled to consider those persons very foolish who avoid the Christian's way, when they might so easily obtain the assurance of heavenly joys, without giving up a single respectable worldly pleasure." Is this exquisite sarcasm justified by our modern day presentation of the Christian way of life? Think it over.

The pastor will speak at a Vesper service at the Prescott Christian church at 5 o'clock Sunday afternoon on the subject "Deep Sea Fishing in Religion." Our people are invited to attend this service.

Ex-Secretary of the Interior Franklin K. Lane, in addressing the student at Williams College, some months ago, said: "We are a great people for organization, but we are one organization short. No other one hundred twenty million people that ever lived have so unionized for one purpose or another, but we need one more. Where is our 'League of Appreciation?' And Mr. Lane closed his statement with these words: 'There should be a common understanding that where a man performs his duty he should get more compensation than a mere salary.'"

The sermon Sunday night is on the subject "Tell Him So, or the Sin of Ingratitude." There is far too much of ingratitude in the home life, in business life, in our church life, and in our daily relationships with our Creator. Turn a hog loose in an orchard if you did see them, what's it got to do with me?"

"What's the use of stalling, Carlo? I've got it figured out right. You can't talk me out of it. You're in the gang that's been pulling all the robberies, and I'm telling you to get out of it or I'll turn you in to the cops."

"You're robbing my customers, my neighbors—people who live in the same town I live in, where I've been working a decent job and taking care of the old man, and where I don't intend to let a punk like you ruin things for me or for Dad. If he wasn't a sick man I'd have let you have this sooner. I didn't want to take any chances on his hearing about it; it'd probably kill him."

"But I'm telling you now—quit that racket, get out of that gang! Or believe me I'll turn you in, and I'll manage some way of keeping the old man ignorant of it if I have to move him across the country and find another job."

CARLO stood his ground. This youngster had nothing on him, only a suspicion.

"Why, you're crazy, Tony!" he said, trying to sound reasonable. "You wandered in and helped yourself to what you found in my house, and now this is something you've dreamed up to gyp me out of it. Well, you can't get away with it."

"I'm not stalling," said Tony. "Why don't you go down to the police and call my bluff if you think it's a bluff? Or how about my helping you call my bluff right here? There's a girl upstairs now, helping the nurse with the old man, who's wearing a ring I found in your house—the cops gave it back to her this morning."

Carlo, in futile rage and sudden fear, glared across the kitchen. Tony faced him with no less anger. And neither was conscious of a figure in the doorway until Marcia entered the room and, carefully closing the door behind her, faced them both.

"So that's how I got my ring back?" she said. "Your brother, isn't it, Tony?"

Tony nodded, aching with his shame and despair.

"Please, Miss Canfield," he said, "remember the old man upstairs."

"I know, Tony," she said. "We mustn't let him know about it. Here—the nurse sent me after hot water. Take it up to her. We'll wait here."

Tony filled the kettle and went out of the room. Marcia and Carlo heard his feet going up the stairs. They heard the dripping of a faucet, the ticking of the kitchen clock.

And Carlo's eyes were on the ring which could convict him.

(To Be Continued)

Hope Ends Best

(Continued From Page One)

the Trojans attempted to pass. Dean Parsons, shifted from right guard to the backfield, raced in and intercepted one of the passes and ran through and he will eat the fruit as it falls without looking up to see where it comes from. That's the homely parable which might be read with profit by most of the human race.

You will be welcome at each and every service at the Christian church this Sunday and every Sunday.

PENTECOSTAL CHURCH

Danila Barnum, Pastor

Sunday school 9:45.
Sunday morning service 11.
Sunday evening service 7:30.

Thursday evening Bible study 7:30.
The subject of the Sunday morning service will be "Good Blessings from Strange Sources," and the evening message "The Call to Sanctification."

The pastor will speak at both services. A special series of Bible studies are being conducted on each Thursday evening relative to the "Gifts of the Spirit." Each member of the church is especially urged to be present at these services.

A cordial invitation is extended the public to attend all services.

GARRETT MEMORIAL BAPTIST

Elder Hollis Purdie, Pastor

Sunday school 9:45 a. m.
B. Y. P. T. C. 6:45 p. m.
Preaching 7:30 p. m.

Ladies Auxiliary Monday 2:30 p. m.
Prayer meeting Wednesday 7:30 p. m.
Men's Workers Meeting Thursday 7:30 p. m.

The public is invited to attend these services.

COMMON COLDS

Relieve the distressing symptoms by applying MENTHOLATUM in nostrils and rubbing on chest.

MENTHOLATUM

Gives COMFORT Daily

the team for touchdown, putting Hope out in front by a score of 27 to 7.

A number of Hope substitutes flooded the field. Hot Springs received but were unable to gain and punted, the ball being grounded on Hope's 45. A play or so later Spears got off a long pass to Bright who outran the safety man for touchdown. The pass and run was good for 55 yards. Holly kicked goal.

With a number of substitutes playing, the Trojan team got possession on the Bobcat 20 when Hope fumbled. Four passes failed and Hope took the ball, held it three downs and punted as the gun ended the game.

To name outstanding players for Hope would be difficult. They all turned in heroic work. Reese turned in a brilliant game on defense as well as offense. The same can be said of Ramsey, the other Hope wingman.

Dick Moore and Stone, Hope's two greatest tackles, were outstanding on defense. Dean Parsons and Keith, a pair of stellar guards and the unsung heroes of many a Hope victory, would bring delight and joy to any high school coach's heart. A Mr. Gregory, scouting the Hope game for the University of Arkansas, said after the battle:

"That boy Dean Parsons is the best high school guard I ever saw."

Holly, rounding out four years at center, turned in a brilliant game. In the backfield there was Spears, Bright, W. Parsons and McDaniels. All played hard games.

Charles Laughton is to return to the London stage as Captain Hook in a Christmas revival of Sir James Barrie's "Peter Pan." His wife, Elsie Laughton, will play Peter.

Chest Colds

Best treated without "dosing"

VICKS VAPORUB

STAINLESS now, if you prefer

LIME

Lime your land, the government will help you. Ground limestone $1.00 a ton. I will make prices delivered anywhere.

WARREN NESBETT

Blevins, Arkansas

HI, EVERYBODY

WE'RE ON THE RADIO!

The Natural Chilean Nitrate Folks Present

UNCLE NATCHEL and SONNY

the Famous Chilean Calendar Characters in a

BRAND NEW RADIO FEATURE

BE SURE AND LISTEN!

STATIONS

WAPI Tues. and Thurs. 12:45 P.M.

WSEA Tues. and Thurs. 12:15 P.M.

WFLA Mon. and Wed. 5:30 P.M.

WSB Tues. and Thurs. (C.T.) 4:45 P.M.

WWT Tues. and Thurs. 12:45 P.M.

WBT Tues. and Thurs. 12:45 P.M.

STATIONS

WPTF Tues. and Thurs. 5:15 P.M.

WIS Tues. and Thurs. 5:45 P.M.

WRVA Mon. and Wed. 12:10 P.M.

WJDX Tues. and Thurs. 12:45 P.M.

WMC Tues. and Thurs. 12:30 P.M.

KWKH Mon. and Wed. 12:45 P.M.

"By Popular Request"

NIGHT SALES

Are Again Brought to You by Merchants of Hope
BESIDES Getting Amazing Values . . .

YOU WILL Get the First Peek at the New Christmas Merchandise that will be on Display.

Tuesday Night December 1st.

From 6:00 to 9:30

Clerks . . . Shopgirls . . . Stenographers . . . Housewives . . . Laborers . . . Salesmen . . . Here's your chance to shop at your convenience.

For your shopping convenience a list of the Merchants Participating in this event will be published in the Star. Each Merchant will advertise his own Merchandise in Monday's Edition of the Star.

Watch for It

Thanks!

I sincerely thank you for the splendid majority vote given me in Tuesday's Election.

Kenneth G. Hamilton

—Political Advertisement.

Thank You

Please accept my sincere thanks for the splendid vote given me in Tuesday's Election. I pledge you my best efforts in fulfilling my duties as your alderman for Ward 4.

C. E. (Charles) TAYLOR

—Political Advertisement.

Saenger

ENDING

Nino Martini
Ida Lupino
Leo Carrillo
"The GAY
DESPERADO"

SATURDAY

Open 11 a. m. to 11 p. m.

THE GREATEST

—of All our—
DOUBLE SHOWS

—and all
Seats 25c

"HOOT" GIBSON
"LUCKY TERROR"

Serial—Cartoon—and

EIGHT All-American stars!

THE BIG GAME

PHILIP HUSTON JAMES GLEASON

JUNE TRAVIS BRUCE CABOT ANDY DEVINE

THE GIGANTIC BATTLE OF THE TITANS

THE GIGANTIC BATTLE OF THE TITANS

THE SPORTS PAGE

Razorbacks Play Smart Football, Beat Tulsa

Porker Offense Led by Robbins

Arkansas Rolls Up 23 First Downs to Seven for Tulsa

TULSA, Okla.—(AP)—The University of Arkansas Razorbacks played smart football here Thursday to outlast Tulsa University 23 to 13 in the 13th annual Thanksgiving game of the two teams.

A crowd of 16,000, largest for the season in Skelly stadium, chilled and thrilled through the contest.

Led by Jack Robbins, big and speedy quarterback, the Arkansas flipped forwards and laterals, crashed through Tulsa's line, and always had the better of the battle.

The Tulsa's fought bravely and pushed over a couple of touchdowns on clever plays but the score did not indicate the Razorbacks' superiority. The statistics showed 11-23 first downs for Arkansas, 7 for Tulsa.

Most spectacular of the scoring plays was White's 61-yard run in the first period to give Tulsa the first touchdown. The speedy halfback swept his left end, outdistanced his interference, sidestepped one Arkansas tackler after another and went over standing up.

The Razorbacks came back the next period to score touchdowns by Robbins and Brown at the end of long marches.

Rank Porkers as Best

Sideline experts agreed that the Razorbacks' running and passing attack was the stiffest the Tulsa's, who had been defeated only by T. C. U. 18 to 7, and hold a tie with Creighton for the Missouri Valley Conference title, have been up against this year.

After White's spectacular run, Tulsa's opportunity to cheer was short-lived. Arkansas struck back savagely, scoring two touchdowns in the first nine minutes of the second period to take a 14-7 lead, and then to score a safety in the same quarter when White tumbled behind his goal line and was downed.

This made the count 16-7 and the Arkansas offense was pressing so relentlessly that the Hurricane never had any chance to cut the margin. In the third the Razorbacks swept to their final touchdown to lead, 23-7, and then with the visitors' line-up full of substitutes it was not until only three minutes of the game were left that Tulsa scored its final touchdown, the stage for which was set by "Red" Chapman blocking a punt by Jack Holt on the Razorback 35.

Loose Ball Near Goal Line

The Porkers gave the capacity crowd an intimation of what the home force were in for when they took the opening kick-off back to their own goal and then swept uninterrupted to the Tulsa four-yard line before losing the ball on a fumble.

Keen ran the kick-off out to the 25. On the first play from scrimmage, Keen fumbled and the ball went bounding crazily along the ground, but he managed to recover. The Porkers then began a drive that looked positively unstoppable. With Robbins throwing forwards and laterals to Keen and Martin and mixing them up with end runs and charges through the opening Tulsa line, the ball moved swiftly across the field until a first down was made on the Tulsa seven, but here the Tulsa line braced and stopped the threat momentarily.

The respite didn't last long enough, however, to give much relief to the Hurricane players. Arkansas took Harmon's kick-off on the 10 and with Robbins and Rawlings, who had replaced Keen, passing and running, the Porkers were again in a threatening position.

In about one minute of the second, Vann Brown went over to tie the score.

Robbins Score Next

An attempt to pass from deep in its own territory cost Tulsa then. School's toss was intercepted by Martin on the Tulsa 32 and the Alert Robbins capitalized on the break to drive the winning touchdown over.

Dwight Sloan pinch-passed for Robbins and Martin caught it on the 17, a 15-yard gain. Sloan tossed one into the end zone and it was batted down, but Robbins then faded back as if to pass and ran around the end to the Tulsa 10. Robbins drove for a first down on the four, and two plays later he bounced off Tulsa's left tackle for the touchdown.

So powerful were the Razorbacks, that they found it necessary to punt only once in the first three quarters.

Scabby barley which hogs usually will not eat may be safely fed to chickens, say University of Illinois agricultural experts.

BUY NOW!

Only a limited number of copies of Hope Star's $1.700 Centennial Edition remain.

It's your last opportunity to purchase the only complete authentic history of 20 Southwest Arkansas towns.

You owe it to yourself and your children to preserve one or more of these copies. No reservations are being made. First come—first served.

The Centennial edition contains 48 pages in six sections with 69 large photographs of historic sites. Bound copies are 50 cents each. Unbound copies are 25 cents—add six cents if mailed.

In This Corner . . . By Art Krenz ALL-AMERICA CUT-UP

Teachers College Win Championship

Defeat Hendrix College 13 to 0 to Finish the Season Unbeaten

CONWAY, Ark.—(AP)—The Arkansas State Teachers College Bears clinched their first state college football championship Thursday by walloping the Hendrix Warriors 13 to 0 before 4000 shivering fans at Estes Stadium. Coach Warren Woodson's Bears finished their eight-game schedule undefeated and untied.

The Teacher passing attack brought victory in a game which saw the Warriors bottle up the running game of the champs. Turner, end, scored the first touchdown in the opening period on a 20-yard pass from Burnett.

A 40-yard pass from Burnett to Turner paved the way for the other touchdown in the second period. Hendrix downing Turner on the six-yard line. Burnett rammed through center for the tally and Conti converted.

The Bears clicked on seven passes to gain 121 yards. They made 13 first downs to six for Hendrix. Teachers gained 126 yards from scrimmage and Hendrix 117.

Hutto of the Warriors led in ground gained with a total of 80 yards. Burnett was the chief ground gainer for the victors from scrimmage while Howard "Pee Wee" Montgomery of the Bears was a constant threat in returning punts.

J. B. Williams of Texarkana stood out in the line at his guard post for the Teachers.

FOOTBALL SCORES

College
Arkansas State Teachers 13, Hendrix 0.
University of Arkansas 23, Tulsa 7.
University 13.
Arkansas Tech 53, Henderson 0.
Monticello A. & M. 13, Magnolia A. & M. 0.

High School
Russellville 11, Clarksville 7.
Camden 14, El Dorado 6.
Pine Bluff 19, Ouchita High, Monroe, La. 0.
Hope 24, Hot Springs 7.
De Queen 40, Horatio 0.
Jonesboro 41, Paragould 0.
West Helena 6, Helena 0.
Fordyce 19, Benton 0.
Walnut Ridge 33, Pocahontas 6.
Searcy 30, Lonoke 0.
Newport 26, Batesville 7.
Rison 32, Sheridan 0.
Crossett 19, Monticello 12.
Wynne 0, Marked Tree 0 (tie).
Stuttgart 13, Brinkley 6.
McGehee 25, Dumas 0.
Texarkana (Tex.) 7, Texarkana (Ark.) 0.
Forrest City 6, Marianna 0.
Rogers 50, Springdale 6.
Lake Village 13, Eudora 0.
Green Forest 12, Cotter 0.
Nashville 25, Prescott 0.
Little Rock 21, North Little Rock 0.
Arkansas School for Deaf 46, Louisiana School for Deaf 0.

Hoppers Held Menace

URBAN, Ill.—(AP)—A possible heavy influx of grasshoppers in 1937 holds a menace for poultry flocks as well as field crops, says J. D. Mizelle, assistant parasitologist at the college of agriculture, University of Illinois.

Mizelle warns that chickens eating grasshoppers and certain other insects become infested with roundworm parasites and tapeworms.

Fordham Beaten by N. Y. U. 7 to 6

Extra-Point Kick Tells Tale in Another Big Upset

NEW YORK.—(AP)—Fordham's proud and bulky Rams, who only a few days ago were on the high road toward the Rose Bowl and national championship recognition, were buried Thursday under a heavy coverlet of blooming Violets from their backyard.

As 50,000 spectators looked on at Yankee Stadium, the Violets from New York University toppled the twice tied but heretofore undefeated Rams by the margin of a kick, 7 to 6, in a football upset that must be ranked as one of the greatest of a dizzy season.

The Violets were rated as one of the surest first losses of the year's campaign until they took the field, rushed over their touchdown in the second period and then held on without shrinking to hold their precious margin.

Bernard Bloom and George Savarese provided the combination that netted the blooming Violets' victory but the greatest hero unquestionably was Howard Dunne, six foot end. Dunne trimmed the Ram horns with one of the most magnificent kicking performances probably in all football history.

Queen Wilhelmina of Holland has decided that the marriage of Princess Juliana and Prince Bernhard Lippe

Monticello Wins Over Magnolia A-M

Obtain Possession of Goat by 13 to 0 Victory

MONTICELLO, Ark.—(AP)—The Monticello A. and M. Bollweevils triumphed over their ancient rivals, the Magnolia A. and M. Mulieriders Thursday, 13 to 0, in a listless game marred by frequent fumbles.

Four thousand fans saw the annual homecoming day battle for possession of the Aggie goat.

Late in the second period, Sherrod, Monticello guard, intercepted a Magnolia pass on the 43-yard line. A series of passes from McAffray to Goss and a 11-yard run by Booth carried the ball to the one. McAffray plunged for the tally.

A recovered fumble on the Magnolia 35 led to the final score, registered on a long pass from McAffray to Goss in the end zone. McAffray's kick was good.

Miss Frances Raoul of Monticello was crowned homecoming queen by Captain Holeman. President Charles Overstreet of Magnolia turned the goat over to Monticello at the end of the contest.

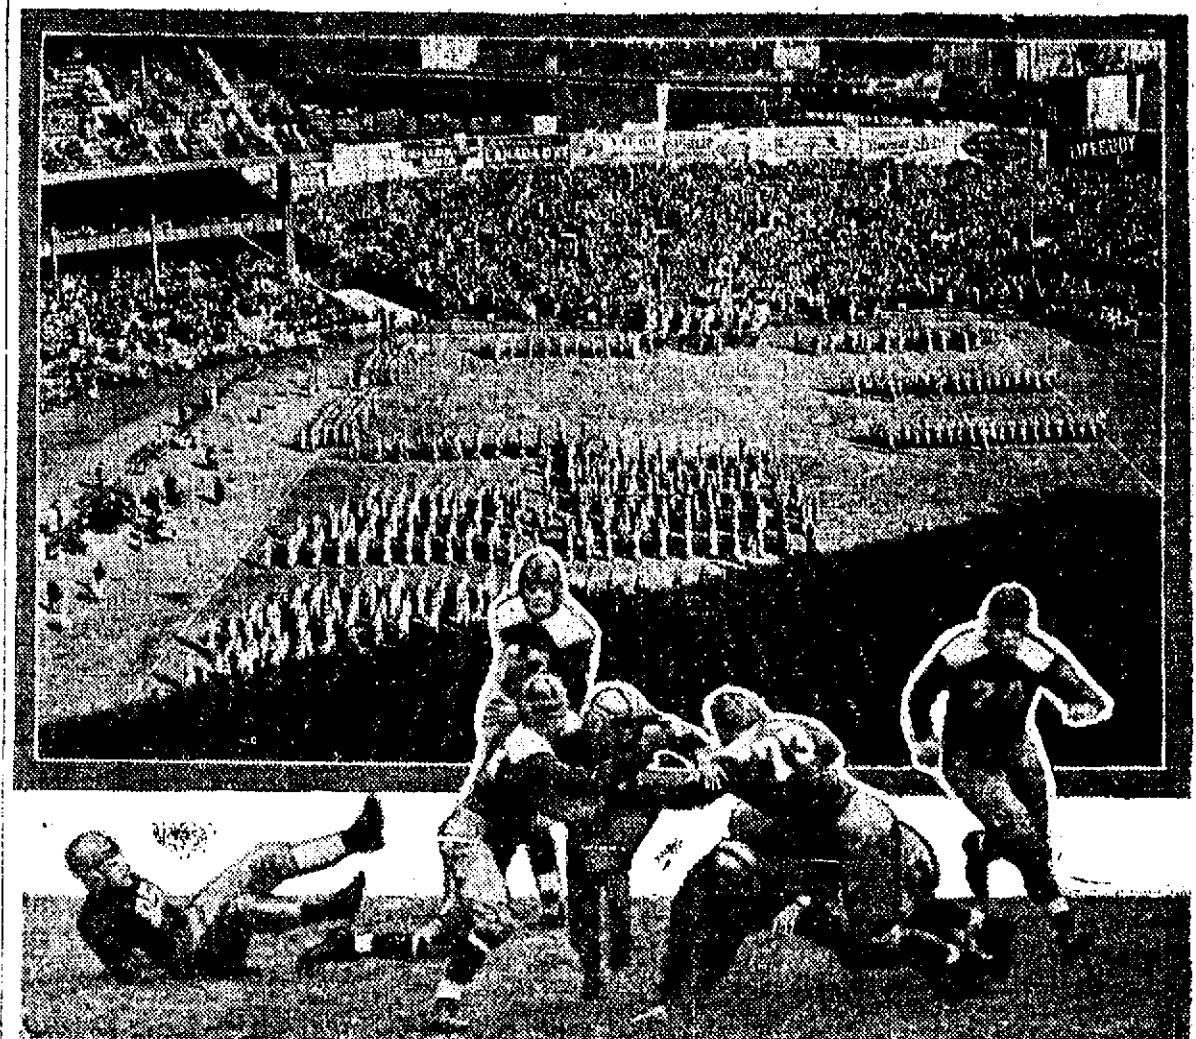

Biesterfeld shall take place at the Jacob's church, The Hague, during the first part of January, according to high authorities.

Iowa U. in Night Club Business—but No Liquor!

Just another bibulous night spot, a casual observer might say, but the one in this scene isn't. It's believed to be the first college-sponsored night club in the country, launched at the University of Iowa, in Iowa City. It has soft lights, music, dancing, floor shows, excellent food, and all the other ingredients—except liquor. Even beer is barred. A campaign led by Editor Jess Gorkin of the Daily Iowan resulted in the opening of the "Silver Shadow," with 110 couples of formally attired collegians attending. Gorkin is shown in foreground with Miss Dorothea Carlson. The musician is Donato Petrucci, law student, all entertainers and waiters being students.

At East's Biggest Grid Spectacle

The Army provided the colorful background but left it to Notre Dame to furnish the winning thrills for the East's biggest football crowd of 80,000 that watched their annual meeting at New York. Pictured are both of these aspects of the game: the West Point Cadet Corps parading on the field between halves, and the method by which Notre Dame sliced Army's big gun, Monk Meyer (center), by gangling up on him. The one occasion when Meyer wasn't throttled, he got away for Army's only score of the 20-6 defeat.

El Dorado-Camden Tilt Ends in Fight

"Free-for-All" Breaks Out—Referee's Nose Is Broken

EL DORADO, Ark.—(AP)—A "free-for-all" fight in which players and spectators took part, broke out Thursday as the Camden high school Panthers defended their traditional rivals, the El Dorado Wildcats, 14 to 6.

The fighting started when the final gun sounded, scores of fans from the two South Arkansas cities swarming from the stands to participate.

El Dorado players swung on Referee Gil Reese of Memphis, breaking his nose in two places. Coaches, fans and players dashed onto the playing field. Officers succeeded in quelling the riot after about five minutes.

The fracas started again when Camden bleacherites flooded the field again, seeking to tear down the goal posts. El Doradoans advanced to engage them in combat.

Several minor altercations took place outside the field. Officers finally succeeded in restoring order.

Six-Pound Spud

CHARLESTON, S. C.—(AP)—Karl Williams, 4 grows big things on his farm. Exhibit A: A six-pound potato.

Reunited After 52 Years

SALT LAKE CITY.—(AP)—In 1884 Anne Nelson, 14, and Ellen Roos, 8, Giffhood chums, came from Sweden to join relatives in America. They were separated and met again in Salt Lake City only this year. Then they discovered that for nearly the entire 52 years they had lived in Utah within a few miles of each other.

An area within a radius of seven miles of Terlingua, Texas, is the second largest producer of quicksilver in the nation. California is first.

P. G. A. MEDALIST

Following up his first round 68, four under par, with a 75, Fay Coleman, above, of Culver City, Calif., carded 143, one under par, to win the Alex Smith memorial medal of the P. G. A. golf tournament in Pinehurst, N. C. Smith, 31 years old, was one of the Pacific coast's ranking amateurs five years ago.

Alabama Defeats Vanderbilt, 14-6

Crimson Tide Scores Twice in Second Half to Win

BIRMINGHAM, Ala.—(AP)—Alabama's Crimson Tide drove through a surprisingly stubborn Vanderbilt eleven for two second half touchdowns here Thursday for a 14 to 6 victory which kept alive the team's hopes for an invitation to play in the Rose Bowl. More than 25,000 saw the contest, played in biting cold wind which hampered passing and punting.

Vanderbilt scored on a 71-yard drive with the opening kickoff, and staved off Alabama threats until late in the third period, when Joe Riley hurled a 26-yard pass into the waiting arms of Ben McLeod, over the Vanderbilt goal.

Joe Kilgore made the extra point from placement to give the Crimson Tide the lead.

Kilgore took a 9-yard loss from Riley for the second score, in the final quarter. He made a leaping catch a scant yard from the back lines and again made the extra point.

Vanderbilt battled desperately, but was outplayed after the opening drive. Plasmann scored the Vandy touchdown on a 10-yard jaunt around his right end, but missed the try for extra point.

The victory left Alabama undefeated. Tennessee's 0-0 tie being the only blot on the Tide record.

heading back to the football heights it once occupied, came up with a second half rush to topple Kansas, 19-3, and earn second place in the Big Six conference race won by Nebraska.

A tremendous crowd of more than 85,000 saw Southern California and Texas' Longhorns knocked Texas A. and M. out of the Southwest Conference race, winning a 7-0 decision. Arkansas play to a 7-7 draw.

Eastern Games

The slender Eastern program pretty well followed from although Bucknell surprised by holding Temple to a scoreless tie. Penn had too much power for Cornell and won, 14-6, after a bitter fight. Colgate ran over Brown, 32-0. George Washington nosed out West Virginia, 7-2.

A big Southern conference schedule saw North Carolina crush Virginia, 59-14; Furman topple Clemson, 12-0; Davidson check Wake Forest, 19-6; Maryland win from Washington and Lee 19-6; Virginia Polytech nose out Virginia Military, 6-0, and Richmond defeat William and Mary by the game count. Kentucky gave Tennessee a mighty battle before bowing, 7-6.

In the Midwest, South Carolina's Gamecocks were beaten by Xavier 21-13; Detroit spilled Creighton, 6-0; and St. Louis spilled Washington University 21-6.

A tremendous crowd of more than 85,000 saw Southern California and Texas' Longhorns knocked Texas A. and M. out of the Southwest Conference race, winning a 7-0 decision. Arkansas play to a 7-7 draw.

How a Fumble Happens!

Up in the grandstand a fumble seldom is seen until after the damage has been done. This remarkable picture—a one-in-a-million action snapshot—shows a fumble taking place in the game between the Green Bay Packers and the football Giants at New York. Don Hutson (left), and Clark Hinkle (right), tackle Tuffy Leemans to hard that the ball trickles out of his grip. The ball can be seen between Hutson's chest and Leeman's thigh.

Washington to Be Pacific Coast's Rose Bowl Team—Alabama Eleven Favored

Crimson Tide, Louisiana State and Pittsburgh Apparently Sole Remaining Eligibles for the Other Half of Rose Bowl Game

NEW YORK.—(AP)—Washington's Huskies captured the Pacific Coast Conference championship and all assured themselves of the Western Rose Bowl assignment Thursday as Fordham's Rams, hot favorites two weeks ago to represent the East in the annual New Year's Day classic at Pasadena, were dropped completely out of the reckoning by New York University.

While Washington's eleven, beaten only by Minnesota, was heading Washington State a 40-0 drubbing before 40,000 at Seattle, Fordham took a 7-6 defeat from New York University, its traditional rival. This apparently left Alabama, Pittsburgh and Louisiana State as the sole remaining eligibles for the other half of the Rose Bowl assignment.

Louisiana State, tied by Texas but undefeated, closes its schedule Saturday against Tulane but Alabama and Huskies captured the Pacific Coast Conference championship and all assured themselves of the Western Rose Bowl assignment Thursday as Fordham's Rams, hot favorites two weeks ago to represent the East in the annual New Year's Day classic at Pasadena, were dropped completely out of the reckoning by New York University.

Alabama Favored

Alabama, picked by many as the team Washington will invite to Pasadena because of the close friendship between Coach Frank Thomas of Alabama and Coach Jimmy Phelan of Washington, had to come from behind to stop Vanderbilt, 14-6 in their traditional Thanksgiving Day contest. Fitt, tied by Fordham and beaten by Duquesne, ran over Carnegie Tech, 31-14, with another impressive display of power.

Duke Wins Southern

With Ace Parker breaking loose twice in the final quarter, Duke gained clear title to the Southern Conference championship by whipping North Carolina State, 13-0. Missouri, clearly

Aged Musician

HORIZONTAL

1 Concert player and composer.

3 Quantity of paper.

10 Three, collectively.

11 Eye.

12 Concealed.

14 Musical note.

15 Enraptured.

16 Note in scale.

17 Wheel.

18 Courtesy title.

19 Very small.

24 Chair.

25 Entrance.

26 Hanging down.

28 Scarlet.

29 Coal pit.

30 Three.

32 North American.

33 Light color.

34 He is a master.

36 Ala.

37 Diminutive.

Answer to Previous Puzzle

13 To deblaim.

16 To rub.

17 Highly susceptible.

19 Mehda.

20 Thought.

21 In the midst.

22 Neither proboun.

23 Wigwag.

24 Observed.

27 Strong cart.

29 Money.

31 Fish-eating animals.

33 Ringworm.

34 Bagpipe player.

35 Wiser.

36 Water hole.

37 To drive in.

39 To court.

40 Musical note.

41 Taro paste.

42 Spain.

43 Road.

44 Ream.

VERTICAL

1 Projecting.

2 Pertaining to air.

3 Any flatish.

4 Type standard.

5 Storehouse.

6 Scripture.

7 Iniquity.

8 Measure.

12 Feb. 14.

13 Male deer.

38 To make lace.

39 Departed.

40 Woven string.

41 Evergreen tree.

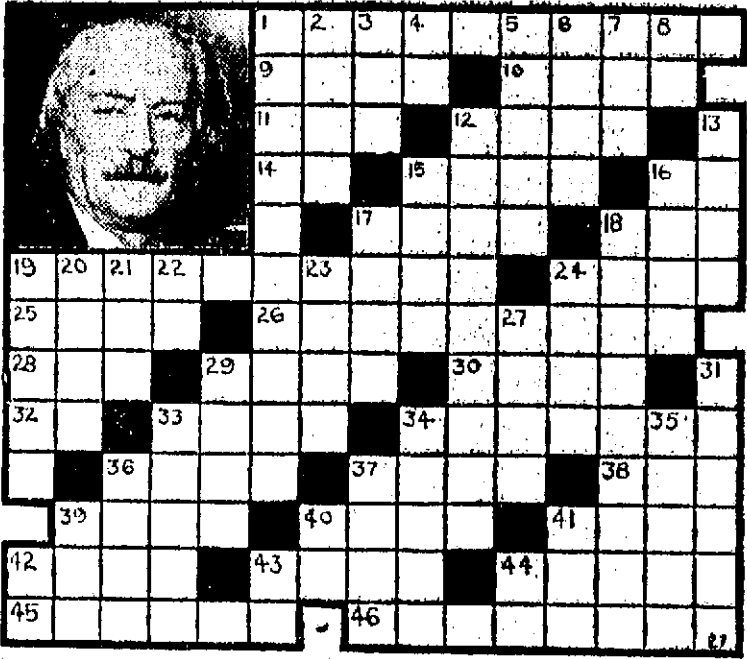

42 Shoe bottom.

43 Verse.

44 Wanderer.

45 His native land.

46 He was — of his country (pl.).

Sell It Find It Rent It Buy It in the Hope Star

MARKET PLACE

Remember, the more you tell, the quicker you sell.
1 time, 10c line, min. 30c

For consecutive insertions, minimum of 3 lines in one ad
3 lines, 6c line, min. 50c
6 lines, 10c line, min. 90c
25 times, 3 1/2c line, min. 75c
(Average 5 1/2 words to the line)

NOTE—Want ads will be accepted with the understanding that the bill is payable on presentation of statement before the first publication

Phone 766

MALE INSTRUCTION

DIESEL TRAINING—Latest up-to-date inside information on the Diesel industry. Write for free copy of "Piston Slaps." Helpful, instructive, New York Diesel Institute, Box 98, Hope Star.

MALE HELP WANTED

Man wanted. Supply customers with famous Watkins Products in Hope and Prescott. No investment. Business established, earnings average $25 weekly, pay starts immediately. J. R. Watkins Company, 70-82 W. Iowa Ave., Memphis, Tenn.

MAN WANTED for nearby Rawleigh Route. Write immediately. Rawleigh Co., Dept. AKK-118-SAC, Memphis, Tenn. or see Jno. R. Cash, Bingen, Ark. 12, 19, 25, 31

LOST

LOST—A roll of innerspring mattress springs with bundle of old American Express truck somewhere between Express office and mattress factory. Reward. See Charley Taylor. 24-3c

LOST—Extra large Goodyear ground-up truck tire between Fulton and seven miles southeast of Hope on Highway No. 4. Notify Zach Brooks, Rodessa, La. Liberal reward. 21-6p

LOST—Brown leather purse in downtown district, containing amount of money. Reward for return to Hope Star. 27-3c

WANTED

WANTED—New or renewal subscriptions on any magazine. See Charles Reynerson. 19-26c

FOR RENT

FOR RENT—Small farm on Hope and Lewisville Highway. No improvements. Apply J. W. Secret, 517 South Hervey street. 24-3c

FOR RENT—My home at 406 South Spruce. Six rooms furnished. Mrs. J. E. Schooley, phone 1938-4 rings. 21-6c

FOR SALE

FOR SALE—Milk-fed turkeys. Phone 382. L. Holloman. 24-3c

FOR SALE—Best grade sorghum molasses. 35 cents per gallon. New Buckets. Call at Hope Star office. 25-25-4h

FOR SALE—Second-hand lumber, all kinds of machinery. See C. C. Sutton at old Hope Fertilizer plant. 19-6p

FOR SALE—New crop, Ribbon Cane Syrup in gallon buckets, fine quality. Gus Haynes, Hope, Arkansas. 24-3c

H. W. Taylor, extension swine specialist at North Carolina State college, says sows for spring farrowing should be bred by the early part of November

OUR BOARDING HOUSE

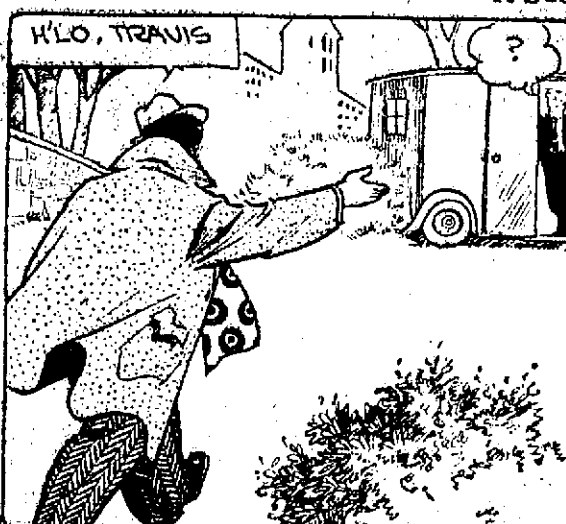

with ... Major Hoople OUT OUR WAY

By WILLIAMS

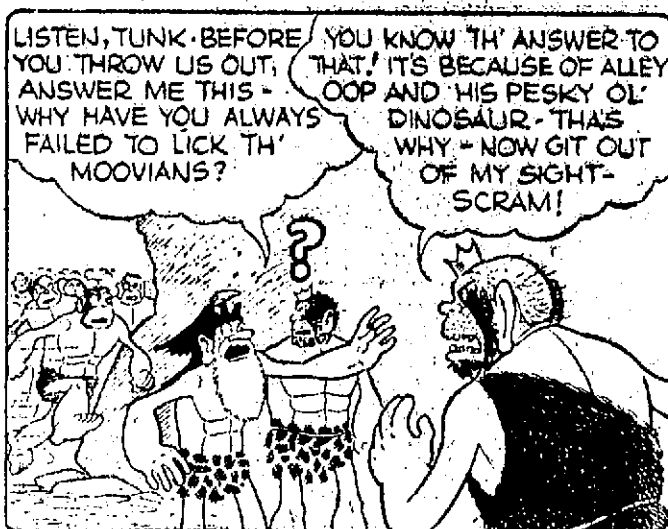

BOOTS AND HER BUDDIES

IM SURE GLAD TGET THIS THING SETTLED! WHO'S A NICE GUY, NALL THAT... BUT THERES TOO DERN MANY FELLAS INTERESTED IN BOOTS, ALREADY! NOW THAT HE KNOWS WHO HE IS, MEBBE HE'LL CLEAR OUT -- I HOPE

ALLEY OOP

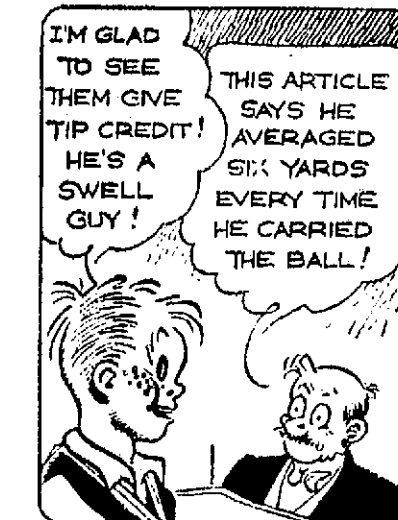

WASH TUBBS

FRECKLES AND HIS FRIENDS

MYRA NORTH, SPECIAL NURSE

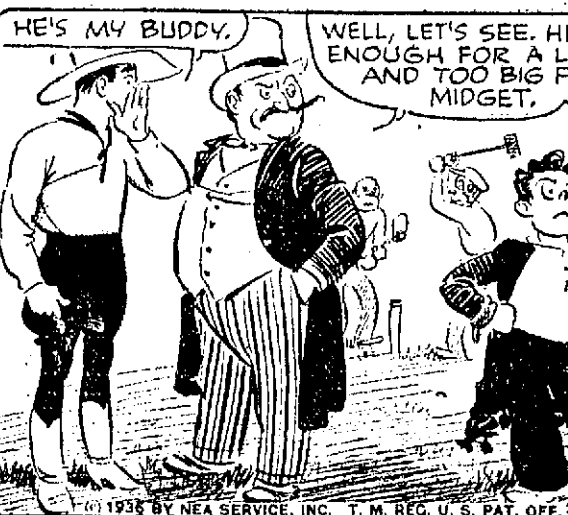

It Seems Hopeless

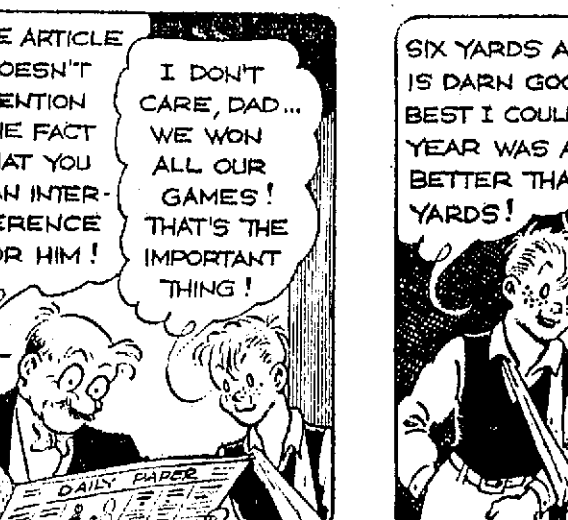

A Cantankerous Visitor

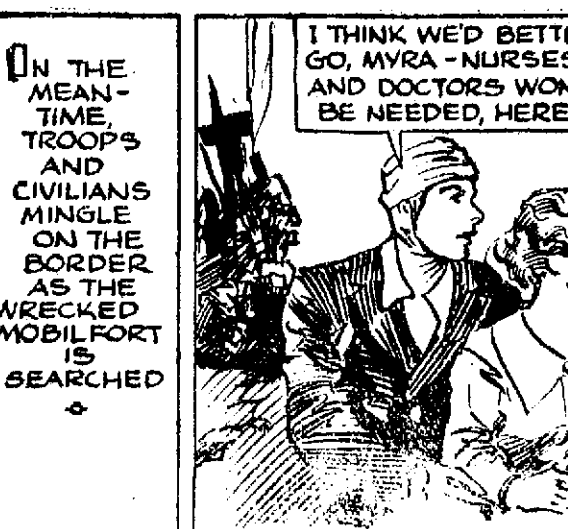

Wash Is in the Bucks

Dad Stands Pat

The End of the Mobilfort

By MARTIN

By HAMLIN

By CRANE

By BLOSSER

By THOMPSON AND COLL

Spain Appeals to Powers of League

Demands Action Against Germany and Italy

GENEVA, Switzerland. — (AP) — The Spanish government appealed to the League of Nations Friday against Germany and Italy under Article Eleven of the covenant dealing with "any war or threat of war," and asked an immediate meeting of the League council.

It was understood that the principal complaint was against Italy-German recognition of the insurgent regime in Spain.

Britain Interested

LONDON, Eng. — (AP) — A marked cooling off of the British attitude toward Germany and Italy was reported in informed circles Friday as the cabinet met for what was understood to be a review of the Spanish situation.

Madrid Digs In

MADRID, Spain. — (AP) — The besieged people of Madrid began Friday to turn their bomb-torn city into a vast labyrinth of underground passages to provide places of refuge in case their homes are brought crashing down upon their heads.

Light skirmishes made up the only activity on the University City battle front in northwestern Madrid after a fierce battle earlier in the week.

Rebels Reassure British

LONDON, Eng. — (AP) — The British Admiralty said Thursday that the Spanish insurgent general, Francisco Franco, had granted Great Britain's repeated demands for neutral shipping safety zones in Barcelona harbor.

When the announcement was made public eight British submarines and the depot ship Cyclops were proceeding from Malta to protect British shipping on the high seas off the Spanish coast.

Franco's action lessened considerably the concern British felt when the Fascist leader threatened to destroy Barcelona if he thought shipments of arms and ammunition to his foes were continuing.

The British ambassador to Spain, Sir Henry Chilton, had been instructed to Stop Itch

With the new liquid BROWN'S LOTION, kill ITCH parasites with a few applications. Instant relief! Buy 60c or $1.00 size today, at

WARD & SON DRUGGISTS

HELP KIDNEYS PASS 3 LBS. A DAY

Doctors say your kidneys contain 15 miles of tiny tubes or filters which help to purify the blood and keep you healthy. Most people pass about 3 pints a day or about 3 pounds of waste. Frequent or scanty passages with aching and burning above there may be something wrong with your kidneys or bladder.

An excess of acids or poisons in your blood, when due to functional kidney disorders, may be the cause of nagging backache, rheumatic pains, hiccups, leg pains, loss of pep and energy, getting up nights, swelling, puffiness under the eyes, headaches and dizziness.

Don't wait! Ask your druggist for Dean's Pills, used successfully by millions for over 40 years. They give happy relief and will help the 15 miles of kidney tubes flush out poisonous waste from your blood. Get Dean's Pills.

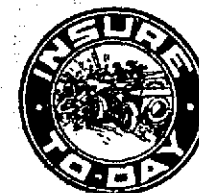

The Gift That Lasts

Let us make your Christmas photograph. Nothing could please your family and friends more. We have a complete selection of Frames and Folders.

Your Home Institution

THE Shipley Studio

Your Home Institution

GREENING INSURANCE AGENCY
TEL. 265
123 S. WALNUT ST.
HOPE, ARK.

Congested Road Conditions—New Drivers—all point to the need of Collision and Liability Insurance.

INSURE NOW!

With ROY ANDERSON and Company
Fire, Tornado, Accident Insurance.

All Pasteurized Products For Your Health's Sake

Babblin' Brook Dairies
HINTON DAVIS
Phone 523 815 W. 5th St.

NOTICE

Monts Sugar Cure
FOR PORK AND BEEF

Our SUGAR-CURE is a formula that cures meat quickly; costs no more than the old salt method and is much less trouble.

Making all cuts tasty and delicious. The fine flavor with attractive brown cured color makes a more ready sale for those who butcher for market.

ELECTRICALLY MIXED
Printed Direction With Each Purchase

MONT'S SEED STORE
Hope, Arkansas

The "Inside" Story of the White House Told in Pictorial Paragraphs

A continuous stream of visitors knocks at the White House door which President Roosevelt is in residence. The lucky few admitted leave hats and coats at the door and go to the executive offices.

Familiar to the regular callers at the White House are the dusting and straightening activities of the house staff, who are kept busy to maintain the spick and span appearance of the executive mansion.

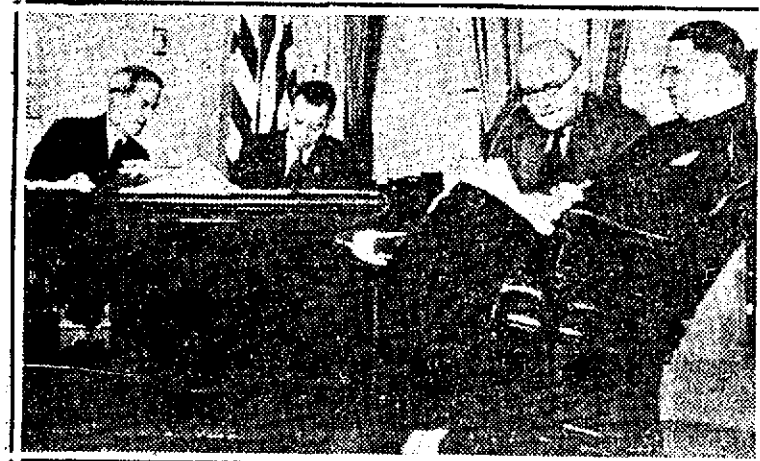

Behind the scenes, Head Usher Raymond T. Murr, seen busy at his desk, keeps the daily routine of the establishment moving smoothly.

To keep the President up with news developments, latest editions are rushed to his desk.

While in his office, the President talks over the day's work with Stephen Early, assistant secretary and one of his trusted lieutenants.

After gaining admittance to the White House, visitors must pass inspection of the President's human "watch dogs" in the office of Marvin McIntyre, his secretary, where successful callers are seen waiting.

When the table in the White House lobby, outside the Executive Offices, is piled high with hats, these in the know realize they may be in for a wait; for to hats belong to reporters in press conference.

Negro Conference in Session Here

25th Annual Meeting of C. M. E. for South-west Counties

The 25th annual session of the Southwest Arkansas conference C. M. E. church, South, is being held in Hope this week at the B. B. Memorial church.

More than 50 negro ministers from all parts of Arkansas are attending. Several negro preachers from Tennessee and Mississippi are here.

Bishop J. H. Moore of Holly Springs, Miss., is doing most of the preaching.

Others appearing on conference programs are the Reverends C. S. Wade of Little Rock, C. I. Bullock of El Dorado, L. W. Anderson of Nashville, Ark., J. H. Scott of Fordyce, Johnnie Reed, J. C. Coleclough of Jackson, Miss., J. H. Taylor of Blytheville, and others.

Rail Wreck Kills

(Continued from page one)

freight having pulled out of the siding to give right-of-way to a "double-header" train transporting gravel.

The gravel train, pulled by two engines, crashed into the rear of the other train. First reports said both engines and the gravel train left the track and overturned. The roar of impact was heard a mile away.

"They have taken one man out and placed him in an automobile to be taken to the Stamps hospital," Smith said. "He appeared to be hurt critically. I don't know whether he was a trainman."

The crash occurred about 200 yards west of the Buckner depot. A call was sent for doctors at Stamps and Magnolia.

Refund Revealed

(Continued From Page One)

bank for $2,000; personal check of Mrs. Kenneth B. Coger, daughter of Mr. McDonald, drawn on W. B. Wortham Company, Bankers, for $3,250, and $2,459.99 in cash.

That a chemical analysis of a barrel of disinfectant indicated it was 99.76 per cent Memphis city water.

Prosecutor Donham said he had not received a copy of the report with its accompanying exhibits but expected it to be delivered to his office Friday.

"I will study the evidence immediately in preparation for the next meeting of the Pulaski County Grand Jury, Tuesday, December 8," he said.

Explaining that he had reviewed the report only briefly at a conference Wednesday, Mr. Donham declined to comment, pending a thorough examination of its contents.

their fifth birthday. It was a membership in the Salt Lake Visiting Nurse association, entitling them to free nursing care throughout the year.

War Debt Issue Reopens in France

French Republic Owes the Americans 4 Billion Dollars

PARIS, France. — (AP) — France took steps Thursday to study the possibilities of reopening United States war debt payments.

With an apparent spread of favorable sentiment in parliamentary circles, a project by Deputy Rene Richard to have the government reopen war debt negotiations will be debated by the Chamber of Deputies Finance Committee Friday. Foreign Minister Yvon Delbos will be present. The next cabinet meeting also will consider the proposal.

If the committee approves Richard's resolution, it will go to the chamber, where opponents hope for quick approval. Their optimism was founded on the growing conviction that France must cement relations with America to offset the increased strength of the Fascist bloc in Europe.

(France's total war debt to the United States is $4,011,132,328.53. She is in default $250,292,292.)

Convict Georgian of Love Murder

W. I. Geer, 62, Found Guilty of Killing Former Secretary

DAWSON, Ga. — (AP) — A superior court jury Friday convicted W. I. Geer, 62, of killing his former secretary, Mrs. Charlie Mae Houston.

The state charged the shooting resulted because she did not return his love.

Queen of The Coop

WASHINGTON, Pa. — (AP) — Old age overtook a hen that ruled Mrs. L. M. Swihart's coop for 16 years. She said the reason it escaped early death was that it was a special hen—it had 17 toes instead of the usual eight.

Laundries-Guard PUBLIC HEALTH

BLANKETS LAUNDERED—NO SHRINKAGE 50c
NELSON-HUCKINS

For Bargains in REAL ESTATE
See
A. C. Erwin

Patsy Campbell Is Cast in New Play

Gets Title Role in "Cupid Up-to-Date," Brookwood P. T. A. Play

Little Miss Patsy Ann Campbell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Campbell, has been selected to play the part of Cupid in the home-talent play "Cupid Up-to-Date," which is sponsored by the Parent-Teacher association of Brookwood school.

This play will be presented in the auditorium of Hope High School December 3 and 4 at 8 p. m. Miss Migna Irl Mayo is director.

Hot Springs Will Have Third Lake

Above Hamilton, It Will Be Even Larger, Resort Understands

HOT SPRINGS, Ark. — Although tourist patronage the past three months has shown a decided increase over the same period last year, and preparations have been begun for one of the best winter seasons in history, announcement from Harvey C. Couch, president of the Arkansas Power & Light Co., that work was under way for the construction of the third hydro-electric dam on the Ouachita river, to be located at the headwaters of Lake Hamilton, was accepted at Hot Springs Christmas present.

Since the Carpenter dam was completed, Hot Springs has visualized the third project, which would complete the chain that it was known Couch had in mind when he built the Remmel dam and offered it as a Christmas gift in 1924.

A. G. Whidden, publicity man for Couch, said that plans are subject to change. It is certain that a lake as large or larger than Lake Hamilton, created by Carpenter dam, and Lake Catherine, created by the Remmel dam, will be formed. The new dam will be located about 15 miles northwest of Hot Springs. Present estimated cost is $4,000,000.

Construction of the dam will necessitate the cutting of a new road to Cedar Glades, Buckville and other communities north of here. The present road, which runs alongside the river for several miles, will be inundated.

Tentative plans announced nearly a year ago indicated that the lake to be created from the third dam would be 35 miles long and almost 15 miles wide in one place. A new lake of this size would give the Ouachita three lakes measuring about 70 miles in length. Lake Catherine is 10 miles long while Lake Hamilton is 24.

Biblical History Proven Accurate

Rev. William R. Hamilton Addresses Rotary Club Luncheon Friday

The discovery of the Rosetta Stone, which gave archaeologists the first clue to the Egyptian hieroglyphics, was told to Hope Rotary club Friday noon by the Rev. William R. Hamilton, First Baptist pastor, in a speech describing how science has backed up the historical truthfulness of the Old Testament.

The Rosetta Stone, discovered in 1799, gave M. Champollion the first clue toward deciphering the meaning of Egyptian inscriptions. The Rosetta Stone was a piece of black basalt found near the mouth of the Nile. It bore a trilingual inscription which proved to be the same piece of writing in three languages: Hieroglyphics; demotic characters; and Greek.

From this discovery, and subsequent excavations in the ruins of old cities, the Rev. Mr. Hamilton continued, science has been able to prove the authenticity of the biblical accounts of the great flood, of the vast state of civilization in biblical times, and of the destruction of cities specifically named in the Bible.

Archaeology has brought fame to some scientists, he continued, while others have labored without definite result. This led him to recall a saying of the late Thomas A. Edison, who, having failed in a certain attempted invention, declared, "Well, I've found another way that it can't be done!"

"And so," the speaker continued, "this holds the practical lesson for all of us, that even though we go unrecognized through life's journey we have yet accomplished something by which the world is made a little bit better off."

The Rev. Fred R. Harrison, who headed the program committee and introduced the speaker, announced that Dr. R. Manton Wilson, Hempstead medical missionary to Korea, would address a city-wide meeting at Hope city hall at 7:45 o'clock next Wednesday night, December 2, with an illustrated lecture on leper work in the Orient.

J. K. Sale extended an invitation to Rotarians to participate in a fish fry staged by the Rotary troop of Boy Scouts at Toner's Landing, Red lake, from 7 to 8 o'clock this Friday night. Guests at Friday's luncheon were:

666 COLDS and FEVER
Liquid Tablets first day
Salve, Nose Drops, Headache, 30 min.
Tc— "Rub-My-Tism"—World's Best Liniment

State Insurance Commissioner U. A. Gentry, J. C. Huchbee, of Minneapolis, Minn.; Syd McMath, Hope; and Left Guard Keith and Halfback Ponder of the Hope High School Bobcats.

Sow Winter Legumes
RALEIGH, N. C. — (AP) — J. F. Crawford, of North Carolina State college, advises the sowing of winter legumes. He says legumes may be counted as soil-conserving crops under the 1936 soil conservation program.

Kidneys Must Flush Out Acids-Poisonous Waste

Kidney ailments won't wear away, and too dangerous to ignore—you've got to help these delicate organs function properly again. It's the same way with bladder trouble. Healthy kidneys filter the acids and poisons and thru the bladder discharge them from the body. Backache—getting up nights—mild pains—scanty high colored urine—rheumatic pains are some of the symptoms.

Ask your druggist for a 35 cent box of safe, gentle Ramon's Brownie Pills for the kidneys. Be sure you get Ramon's, the original and genuine.

BLACK-DRAUGHT For Clean System Helps To Prevent Sickness

One of the advantages of Black-Draught is that, if it is taken at the first disagreeable feeling of constipation, one or two doses usually bring relief. Prompt relief, such as that, is well worth while. Constipation is too dangerous to be neglected.

"A clean system for health" plan has saved thousands of people many useless sicknesses. They keep a package of Black-Draught in the family medicine cabinet and take this purely vegetable laxative at the first sign of constipation. They say the relief it brings is mighty hard to beat.

Find out, by trying it, why so many people prefer Black-Draught when it comes to buying a laxative. —adv.

AUCTION EVERY TUESDAY
SUTTON-COLLIER Mule Barn
South Walnut Street
Bring anything you have to sell.

EXPERT HAT CLEANING REBLOCKING
Expert means particularly well skilled in a particular field, our HAT BLOCKING is expert work of a well equipped shop.
Hall Bros
CLEANERS & HATTERS
PHONE 385

We run our house on the HUDDLE SYSTEM

Maybe two can live as cheaply one one—on a desert island.

But right after we married, Jim and I soon found out that running a house costs money—more, we first thought, than we could manage to scrape together.

Things are easier now. It took a while for us to learn, but we have the plan down pat. Jim calls it our "huddle system."

There really isn't any trick about it. We have a budget, of course—so much for food, clothes, amusements, luxuries, vacation. But having a budget is one thing. Making it work is another. There's where the system comes in.

Religiously, each day, we read the advertisements in this paper—together. Jim looks for the things he is most interested in—suits, shirts, golf equipment, books, smoking supplies. I look out for myself—shoes, dresses, a winter coat, cosmetics, draperies, bathroom accessories, linens. Then we go into a "huddle"—report to each other—check over our budget—spend what we can for what we feel we need—and save!

Careful buying, Jim says, is the secret of saving money. But careful reading of advertisements, we both agree, comes first!